FINAL EXAM-WRITING PRACTICE

LEVELS 7.1

Section 1: Predict and Justify (5 Marks)

Read the following beginning of a narrative and answer the questions below:

The sky had begun to turn from inky black to the soft grey that welcomes the dawn by the time Anwar finally left. Working at a busy restaurant in the heart of Dubai, he often found himself crawling back to his flat when others had long been asleep. There was nothing like the exhilaration of working in a busy kitchen to keep him coming back to work night after night, though. Exhausted, he'd tried to quit a few times but his love for cooking and the camaraderie of a good team made sure he returned to the kitchen. He checked that the door was locked before stepping into the quiet street.

Section 2: Write a plan (5 Marks)

Write a plan for the rest of the story.

Include information about:

- the types of jobs Anwar might want to do instead of cooking.
- why the jobs might be suitable (or unsuitable) for Anwar.
- something that happens that helps Anwar come to a decision.

Section 3: Write a story (25 Marks)

Using your plan and the sentences you wrote, write the rest of the story.

Include information about:

- the types of jobs Anwar might want to do instead of cooking.
