What is an abbreviation

abbreviation : a shortened form of a word or phrase.

Skills Focus

Getting Meaning from Context

Strategy

1. i.e. = that is/in other words; 2. e.g. = for example

Abbreviations

Sometimes certain abbreviations (shortened forms of words) help you understand a new word or phrase. Read the examples and match them with the correct meaning.

There have been many entrepreneurs in the past couple of decades that have done so, e.g. Pierre Omidyar and Jeff Skoll, who changed the way that people purchase things.

It must also be sustainable, i.e. it must be able to last a long time, without depending on donations for its funding.

1. _____ = that is; in other words

2. _____ = for example

Parts of Speech

When trying to figure out meaning from context, it often helps to identify the part of speech of the new word.

Example: Today, there are over 162 million eBay users worldwide and over 800 million items are being sold on this platform at any given time.

Part of speech: noun

Possible meanings: raised area, e.g. at a train station; computer technology; a place where people can communicate.

Objectives

1- to learn about words associated with making money

2- to use the new words in context correctly.

3- To understand meaning out of context using abbreviations
And part of speech

4 Getting meaning from context Read the sentences. Circle the words that give clues to the meaning of the underlined word(s). What part of speech is each underlined word? Then discuss the questions in pairs.

1. An entrepreneur in a developing country might have an idea to lift themselves and their people out of poverty.

Question: What other situations can you lift yourself out of?

2. This institution gives people grants rather than loans in order to start up their businesses.

Question: What institutions in your country offer grants?

3. Successful entrepreneurs should try to invest the money they make back into their community.

Question: What would you invest your money in?

4. The Global Fund for Women helps find solutions to social ills – e.g. lack of health care and lack of education.

Question: What other examples of social ills can you think of?

5. We don't want to buy products because of some strange compulsion – some irrational desire that we can't control.

Question: Have you ever felt the compulsion to do something? What was it?
