Hamad's Routine

My name is Hamad. I live with my parents and two brothers on a farm near Hatta. On school days, I usually wake up at 6 o'clock. My brothers get up late at the weekend, but I get up at the same time every day.

I usually go to school by bus but sometimes I go in my father's car. The car is much faster than a bus. I like walking, but the school is very far so I never walk to school.

At the weekend, I like playing with my friends, Fahd and Salim. They live near our farm. Sometimes, we run or play in the swimming pool all day. We all love it, but when I get home in the evening, I am tired and hungry. I eat my dinner in the kitchen, listen to music and relax.

On school days, my mother cooks dinner for the whole family, but on Friday evening, my father usually picks up the phone and orders dinner from a restaurant. We sit in the garden, eat the food and talk to each other. I like our evenings together but I go to bed before 11 p.m. every day.

Jameela's Memories

When I was little, I lived in a small town in the desert, not far from the capital city. Many things were very different to today. We did not have any of the modern appliances that save you time and make your life easy these days. Everyone in the family had to work hard and help. We all had something to do every day of the week.

First thing in the morning, I used to collect wood to make the fire. Then, I used to help our mother to make breakfast for the whole family. After breakfast, I used to do the washing up with my sister. Nobody had a dishwasher then. We used to take ages as it was difficult to wash the teapots and the saucepans. My brother sometimes helped us with that.

One day a week was cleaning day. Then, my mother used to wash the floors and clean the windows. She also used to do the washing on that day and I always used to hang it out. The sheets were wet and cool, so it was my favourite thing to do, but I did not use to take the clothes down. That was my mother's job.

There is another thing I remember that is different from today. We never used to buy a lot of food because we did not have a fridge to keep it in.
