A Trip to the Park

Last Sunday, Maria and her family went to the park. It was a sunny day, and the sky was blue. They arrived at the park in the morning. Maria brought her bike, and her brother, Sam, brought a ball.

At the park, Maria rode her bike on the path. She went fast, but she was careful. Sam played with the ball. He kicked it high into the air. Their parents sat on a bench and watched them. After some time, they had a picnic. They ate sandwiches, fruit, and drank juice.

Later, Maria and Sam played together. They played hide and seek behind the trees. They had so much fun! In the evening, it was time to go home. Maria and Sam were tired but happy. They both said, "We want to come back to the park soon!"

The Lost Puppy

One cold afternoon, Emma was walking home from school when she heard a soft whimpering sound. Curious, she followed the noise and found a small, brown puppy hiding behind a bush. The puppy was shivering, and it looked scared. Emma crouched down and gently called to the puppy. At first, it hesitated, but then it slowly walked towards her.

Emma noticed that the puppy didn't have a collar, so she knew it didn't belong to anyone nearby. She decided to take the puppy home to keep it safe. When she got home, Emma's mother was surprised to see the little dog. Emma explained how she found it, and her mother agreed they could take care of the puppy until they found its owner.

That evening, they made posters with a picture of the puppy and hung them around the neighborhood. Days went by, but no one came to claim the lost puppy. Emma grew more attached to the puppy and started calling it "Buddy." Finally, after a week, her mother said they could keep Buddy if no one claimed him by the end of the month.

Emma was thrilled. She took Buddy for walks every day, and they played together in the backyard. The two became best friends, and Emma was happy knowing that she gave Buddy a loving home.

( 3 ) At the Zoo

Last Saturday, Jake and his family went to the zoo. Jake was excited because he loves animals. The first animal they saw was a big elephant. It had long tusks and a strong trunk. Jake watched the elephant eat leaves from a tall tree.

Next, they saw monkeys swinging from trees. The monkeys were loud and playful. One monkey even threw a banana! Jake laughed and took a picture.

After that, Jake's family went to see the lions. The lions were resting in the shade. Jake thought they looked sleepy. Before leaving, they visited the penguins. The penguins were swimming in the water and sliding on the ice.

Jake had a great day at the zoo and wanted to go back again soon.

The Camping Trip

Last summer, Ethan and his family decided to go on a camping trip in the mountains. They packed their tent, sleeping bags, and enough food for three days. After a long drive, they finally reached the campsite. The air was fresh, and the trees were tall. Ethan couldn't wait to explore the forest.

The first night, they built a campfire and roasted marshmallows. As they sat around the fire, Ethan's father told them stories about the stars. Ethan looked up and saw the night sky filled with thousands of bright stars. It was a sight he would never forget.

The next day, Ethan and his sister, Lily, went hiking. They followed a trail that led to a beautiful waterfall. The water was cold, but they dipped their feet in it anyway. On the way back, they saw different animals, like squirrels and birds. They even spotted a deer drinking from a stream.

On the last day, they packed up their things and headed home. Ethan was a little sad to leave but excited to tell his friends about the adventure. He couldn't wait to go camping again.
