المناهج الإلكترونية

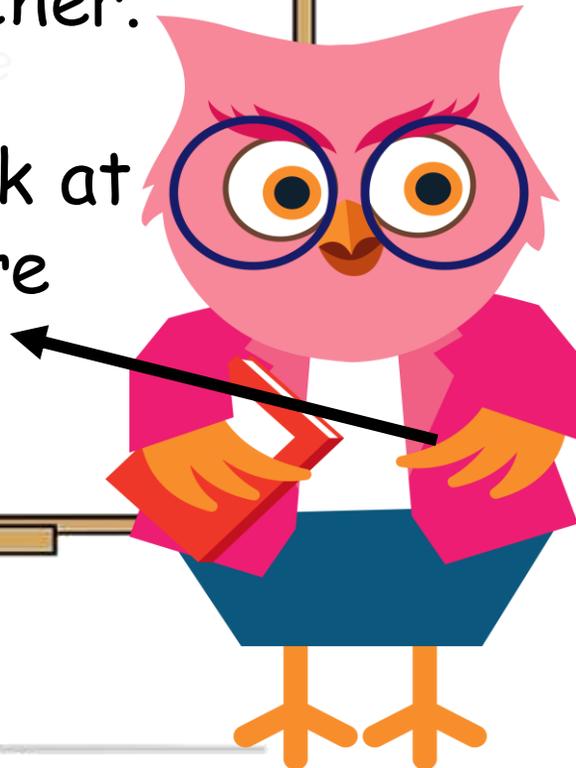

1) Speak loudly so the teacher can hear you.

2) Make eye contact.

Look at your teacher.

It is polite to look at the person you are talking to.

3) Talk about the topic.

Teacher: "What is your dream job, Ahmed?"

Ahmed: "I love playing Fortnite because it is fun."

Is this the topic that the teacher asked about?

Begin your reply by repeating what the teacher said. This will help you stay on topic.

Teacher: "What is your dream job, Ahmed?"

Ahmed: "My dream job is to be a teacher so I can help my students be a better person."

Is this the topic that the teacher asked about?

4) Don't read off a paper because in real life, you don't talk like this.

5) Use key vocabulary.

6) Speak clearly and pronounce the words properly.

Teacher: "Hi Ahmed. How do people eat in China?"

Ahmed: "In China, they eat noodles with chopsticks."

Practise how to say the words so you don't make mistakes.

6) Speak clearly and pronounce the words properly.

Teacher: "Hi Ahmed. How do people eat in China?"

Ahmed: "In China, they eat noodles with chopsticks."

Don't pause too much and say 'ermm' a lot

6) Speak clearly and pronounce the words properly.

Teacher: "Hi Ahmed. How do people eat in China?"

Ahmed: "In China, they eat noodles with chopsticks."

Don't speak too quickly because it is hard to understand.

6) Speak clearly and pronounce the words properly.

Teacher: "Hi Ahmed, how do people eat in China?"

Ahmed: "In China, they eat noodles with chopsticks."

This was clear and the pronunciation was perfect.
