Helen Keller was a woman from a small farm town in Alabama, United States, who taught the world to respect people who are blind and deaf. Before Helen was born, society did not understand blind and deaf people very well and there were very few opportunities for them to get a good education. It was very difficult for them to be independent and have a job. They often had to have help from other people to care for them throughout their lives .

Helen's mission came from her own life, when she was 18 months old, she was extremely ill, and she lost both her vision and hearing. It was like entering a different world, with completely new rules, and she got very frustrated.

By the time she was seven, her parents knew they needed help, so they hired a teacher called Anne Sullivan. In just few days, she taught Helen how to spell words with her hands ( called the manual alphabet, which is part of the sign language that deaf people use ) .

Read the following passage, then answer the questions below :

1. there was once a girl called Sara, who liked sweets and chocolate very much. Every day her mother gave her and her two brothers one sweet from a jar, which was kept on a high shelf in the kitchen. However, Sara always complained that one sweet was not enough. " Mum can I have another sweet "? One is not enough. Her mother always replied, " no, I'm sorry ". You may have one sweet everyday. You can have another one tomorrow. She would then put the jar back on the shelf.

2. one day, Sara's mother was out shopping and her father was working in his office upstairs. Sara decided that this was the moment to take some more sweets from the jar. She was a lone in the kitchen and her brothers were tidying their rooms upstairs. They were very helpful and hardworking, but Sara was a lazy girl. She managed to climb onto a wooden chair and with great difficulty took the jar down from the shelf and opened the lid. With a big smile on her face, she took a large handful of sweets. But when she tried to take her hand from the jar, it wouldn't move and the more she tried, the more difficult it became. Her hand started to hurt and she began to cry.

3. at the moment, her mother returned from shopping. She smiled when she saw her daughter crying with her hands in the sweet jar. She knew why she was crying. The mother said, " Oh daughter !" this behavior will lead you into such trouble ! let go of the sweets and you will be able to take your hand out of the jar. Sara let go of the sweet and she was then able to take her hand from the glass jar very easily. That was the last time she ever asked for more than one sweet.

Although not the longest river in America, the Rio Grande is one of the most important. But, unlike other significant rivers, it is not used for shipping. In fact, oceangoing ships cannot navigate the waters. No, what makes the Rio Grande so important is its location. Since 1846, it has been the official border of Texas and Mexico.

The Rio Grande is either the fourth or fifth longest river system in North America. It all depends on how it is measured. Because the river twists so much, it occasionally changes course. And these course shifts can cause it to be longer or shorter. At its last official measure, the Rio Grande clocked in at 1,896 miles. The river starts in Colorado and extends downward to the Gulf of Mexico. Downward is the best way of describing it too. Not only does the river extend south, but it also starts in the mountains and gets lower and lower in elevation as it extends to the Gulf. Its name is Spanish for the "Big River," but the Rio Grande is actually known as Rio Bravo in Mexico.

The Rio Grande today is mostly used as a source of drinking water. Sadly, much of the water has been drained from the river. Parts of the river are almost dry! This is because people use more water from the river than the river can get back from rain and other sources.

# Read the following passage, then answer the questions below :

A material is what something is made of. There are 5 basic materials. Most things are made with these materials. Some things are made of metal. Some things are made of glass. Some things are made of wood. Some things are made of cloth. And some things are made of plastic.

Let's talk about metal first. Metal is very heavy. And it is very hard and strong. It usually feels cool if you touch it. We use metal to make lots of things. We use it for forks and knives. We use it for keys. We use it for cars. We use it for these things because it is very strong.

Next, let's talk about glass. Glass is very smooth. It feels cool to touch. It is not as heavy as metal. It is hard. But it is not strong. It breaks very easily! Then why do we use it? We use it because it is clear! You can see through glass! That's why we use it for windows. That's also why we use it for glasses.

Now, let's talk about wood. Wood is lighter than metal and glass. It is not as strong as metal. But it is much stronger than glass. We use wood to make lots of things. Things made from wood are usually light and hard and strong. tables are made from wood. Pencils are made from wood.

Now let's talk about cloth. Cloth is very light. It is much lighter than wood. And it is very soft. We use cloth to make lots of things. For example, it is used to make clothing. And it is used to make blankets.

Last, let's talk about plastic. Plastic is also very light. But it is different from cloth. Sometimes it is soft. And sometimes it is hard. Plastic can be used to make thin plastic bags. These are light, soft, and strong. But plastic can also be used to make bicycle helmets. These are light, hard, and strong.
