way to disconnect from technology and spend time with friends and family. Many people choose to go camping in the mountains or by the beach, where they can enjoy nature and relax away from their busy lives. One of the most popular destinations for camping is the Sahara Desert, where adventurers experience the vast, open landscape and unique wildlife.

Text:

Omar loved everything about ancient Egypt and read every book he could find. He also listened to traditional Egyptian music all the time. When his parents told him and his older brother, Rashed, that they were going to Egypt for their next holiday, he was so excited. His brother, Rashed, didn't share his feelings. He wanted to go somewhere with cooler weather, but Omar couldn't wait. The trip of his dreams was finally happening!

The family arrived at their hotel in Cairo. It looked like a palace made of stone. Rashed complained that it was hot and noisy, but Omar was happy to be there.

His parents wanted to get some rest, so Rashed asked if he could explore the neighbourhood. "Sure," Rashed's father said. "Take your little brother with you. Be careful and watch out for him, Rashed." Rashed looked upset.

They went to a large outdoor market close to the hotel. Omar was amazed by small birds in cages. Rashed looked on, uninterested. "Omar," said Rashed, "I'm hungry. Can we get something to eat?"

Rashed pulled Omar away from the birds and replied, "We'll get something to eat soon. I just want to look around a bit and buy some things for my friends." While Rashed was looking at items for sale, the boys heard music playing in the distance. After Rashed bought his items, he turned around but didn't see his brother.

Example Answer:

My favorite sport is soccer. I love it because it is very exciting and requires a lot of teamwork. I usually play soccer with my friends on weekends, either in the park or on a field. Soccer is different from other sports because it doesn't require much equipment — just a ball and an open space. What makes it special is the way it brings people together, and I really enjoy working as a team to score goals. Soccer helps me stay fit and improves my coordination.
