Read the following passage , then answer the questions below :

Amina and Hafsa were sisters. One day, they came home from school and they both looked very sad. 'Why are you so sad?' asked their mother. 'The teacher gave us too much homework!' cried Amina. 'How can we finish it?' said Hafsa. 'How? By doing it little by little,' said their mother. Amina started to do the homework. First, she did one exercise, then another. It was slow work, but she finally finished the homework. Her sister Hafsa didn't start the homework at all. She thought, 'There's too much homework!' The next day, the teacher said to Amina, 'You are a very good student!' and when the sisters came home from school, their mother made a delicious cake for Amina that said, 'Little by little.'
