Part 1: Reading Comprehension

Read the following text and then answer the questions.

Dear pen pal

A) I wanted to write about this earlier but I've been so busy, it slipped my mind. I've been in the UAE for three days now and I love it. I've been staying at a nice hotel and everyone I've met is so ((friendly)). If you were here, you'd love it too.

B) I'm writing because I wanted to tell everyone about my recent trip to a desert. Yesterday, I joined a group to go out into the desert and stay at a Bedouin village for one night. I chose to go on this trip because I wanted to learn more about the culture of the Bedouin people and life in the desert.

C) When we arrived at the village, I saw many tents that were different in colours and sizes. Our guides told us that the tents were made from goat or camel hair and were the Bedouin's homes. We were told that we would be sleeping in the tents, which made me happy because I enjoy camping. The sun made the desert very hot so I looked forward to the evening.

D) In the evening, first we had an amazing dinner with many kinds of traditional Bedouin food. Later that night, a campfire was made and we sat down around the fire and learned more about Bedouin society. We were taught some things about ((its)) music, dance, poetry, and other traditions. It was a great trip that I'll never forget.

Omar

Part 2: Maze-Reading

Choose the correct word(s) to complete the sentences.

You might get into trouble for 1(chatting-chats-chatted) in class, but education experts have found that talking to your classmates can be 2(nonsense- helpful-silly). ‘Students should be encouraged to explain things to each other and to discuss things,’ they say. Sometimes you’re scared 3(of-at -in) asking the teacher, so I often ask a classmate instead of 4(interrupting-cheating -bothering) the teacher. Talking in class distracts you from getting on with your work. I get tired of telling people to be quiet. At the end of the lesson, our teacher lets us talk about what we 5(have learned-learned -learn) in class. I think that’s a good idea. It helps us to remember what we’ve done and we can ask questions.
