Passage II : Read the email from Fatima to Yasmin.

Dear Yasmin,

I am emailing you from our hotel in India. We had an amazing first day here and I just had to tell you all about it.

We came to India for one week because my father needed to buy some fabric for his business. The textile market we went to had all kinds of beautiful fabrics. They had cotton, silk, satin and velvet fabrics in a range of colours. I bought some blue silk so I can make some dresses with it.

Next we went to buy some jewellery at a small shop. The shop owner actually made all of the jewellery himself. You should have seen the beautiful bracelets and necklaces. I bought a beautiful necklace. My sister found a pearl bracelet that she bought.

We also went to a crowded market that sold spice. Well, they sold more than just spice. They also sold nuts and dried fruit. The smells in the market were amazing. All of the spices are used in Indian cooking. It is easy to understand why Indian food has such good flavour.

After the spice market, my father wanted to get a haircut. He went to a barbershop. Next to the barbershop, there was a shoe shop. I went into the shop and found some amazing red velvet shoes with pearls. I really wanted to buy them however the man who was helping me was very unfriendly, so we left.

When my father was finished with his haircut, we went back to our hotel. It was a great first day in India.

Your friend,
