A simple sentence is a sentence that has one subject-verb pair.

The word simple in “simple sentence” doesn’t mean “easy.” It means “one subject-verb pair.”

The subject in a simple sentence may be compound:¹

My brother and I are completely different.

The verb in a simple sentence may be compound:

They laughed and cried at the same time.

However, each sentence is a simple sentence because it has only one subject-verb pair.

There are many variations, but each sentence has only one SV pair.

Simple Sentences	“Formulas”
1. ^S My younger sister ^V speaks English well.	S V
2. ^S My mother and father ^S and ^V father speak English well.	S S V
3. ^S My mother and father ^S and ^V write ^V English well.	S S V V
4. ^S My parents ^V will retire soon.	S V
5. ^S Then they ^V will move into a smaller apartment or ^V live with my older brother and his family.	S V V

conjunctions

+ + Use and to join two or more items in a positive sentence.

I love tacos, pizza, and egg rolls.

- - Use or to join two or more items in a negative sentence.

I don't like hot dogs or hamburgers.

T? F? Also, use or to connect choices.

Is this sentence true or false?

Do you want to stay home or go out tonight?

complex sentence

1. An independent clause has one SV pair and expresses a complete thought. Independent clause is just another name for a simple sentence.

S V
Paris has excellent art museums.

S V
We finished our homework.

2. A dependent clause is an independent clause with a subordinating word, such as because, after, and when, added to the beginning of it.

SUBORDINATING
WORD S V
... because Paris has excellent art museums ...

SUBORDINATING
WORD S V
... after we finished our homework ...

Certain adverb subordinators introduce time clauses. Here are some common time subordinators.

Time Subordinators

after	I will go straight to bed after I finish writing this paragraph.
as soon as	She felt better as soon as she took the medicine.
before	Wait for a green light before you cross a street.
since	It has been a year since I left home.
until	We can't leave the room until everyone finishes the test.
when	Where were you when I called?
whenever	Whenever I don't sleep well, I feel sick the next day.
while	My neighbors were having a party while I was trying to sleep.

Outline/Essay statement.

Intro:

Eating at restaurants is a common practice for many people, as it offers a convenient and enjoyable way to dine out. There are a variety of reasons why someone may choose to eat at a restaurant, such as the desire to socialize with friends or family, to try new and different types of cuisine, or simply to enjoy a break from cooking at home. For me, eating at restaurants can be a fun and relaxing experience, especially when trying out new dishes or exploring different cultures through their food. This essay will illuminate these reasons.

Body 1:

Topic sentence.

Supporting sentence 1.

Supporting sentence 2.

Body 1:

One of the main reasons I enjoy eating at restaurants is the opportunity to try a wide range of dishes that I may not be able to replicate at home. Restaurants often have skilled chefs who are able to create complex and flavorful dishes that I may not have the time or resources to make myself. Additionally, eating at a restaurant allows me to sample foods from different cultures and regions, providing me with a diverse culinary experience.

Body 2:

Topic sentence.

Supporting sentence 1.

Supporting sentence 2.

Body 2:

Another reason I appreciate dining out is the social aspect of eating at restaurants. Whether I am catching up with friends over a meal or celebrating a special occasion with family, dining out allows for a shared experience that can create lasting memories. Sharing a meal at a restaurant provides an opportunity to bond with loved ones and enjoy each other's company in a relaxed and enjoyable setting.

Conclusion:

Restate sentence 1.

Restate sentence 2.

Restate sentence 3.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, eating at restaurants is a pleasurable experience that offers a variety of benefits, from trying new and unique dishes to socializing with friends and family. While dining out may not always be the most economical choice, the opportunity to enjoy delicious food in a vibrant and engaging atmosphere is worth the expense for many people. Overall, I believe that eating at restaurants can be a fulfilling and enjoyable experience that offers a welcome break from the routine of cooking at home.
