After reading

Talk with your child about the book. Here are some questions you could ask:

- a. Why was Mum sad?
- a. What happened at the end of the story?
- a. Did you like this story? Why or why not?

Encourage your child to read the story again. This will build their reading confidence and reading fluency.

Other things to do

Keep talking about this book.

Your child could draw a picture of his or her family.
