Writing

A reflective blog

Hi I'm Hamad I'm a student at Bahrain university .At the moment I'm studying art for six months in London as a part of my program.

*Wednesday May 10

At first When I arrived here I was so depressed and homesick but as the courses began I got busy and made friends which helped me get better . Yesterday we visited some museums here. It helped me understand the culture and art better. I also became good at speaking English.

*Saturday May 23

I've just begun my courses . There are so many projects to do and exams to study for which taught me to organize my time and take responsibility for my actions . My room is always clean and tidy and I do my laundry regularly, cook meals with my flat mates and go to bed early except when I have exams!

*Monday May 28

Next week, there will be a culture day and I'll represent Bahrain. At the moment I'm preparing for this day to win the competition. I'm happy here and I learn new things every day. I've also learnt to save money so that my pocket money will last till the end of the month.

(A TV programme review)

The National Geographic is a famous documentary programme, focusing on our world, the Earth ,the nature , peoples and other creatures. The whole world is brought before you, with its beauty and wonders.

I like this programme because it is educational. By watching it, I can 'travel', 'explore' and 'discover' the world. So, this programme helps to improve my knowledge and experience.

I also enjoy watching the National Geographic because it is very enjoyable. I get a chance to enjoy the natural sights, sounds and colours of the world and its different peoples or animals, all in the comfort of my own home.

In addition to that, this programme is produced by a team of experts in their field. The photographic footage is fantastic. Besides, the narration is very, informative. Thus, I have never felt bored with watching it.

I recommend people to watch it so that they have a chance to spend amazing moments and care for the world we live in.

A film review (Home Alone )

1-introduction

"Home Alone" is one of the most exciting films I've ever seen It's a comic film written by John Hughes and directed by Chris Columbus. (Macaulay Culken) acted as Kevin, (Joe Peseias) Harry and (Daniel Stern) as Marv.

2-short summary

After a fight with his brother in front of the family, his parents send him up to third floor for the night. Kevin wishes his family would disappear ! In the morning they travel to France to celebrate Christmas and forget him at home. But two burglars Harry and Marv try to rob his house but Kevin makes a plan to catch them and send them to the prison.

3-The characters and the plot

My favourite character is Kevin because he is a brave and smart boy. I think the plot is very interesting and funny, but I don't like Harry and Marv because they are silly .Also, some scenes are not true.

4- Recommendations and the morals

I recommend every one to watch this film because it is very funny and exciting. The moral of the film is that the family is important for everyone and nobody can live alone.

A story review

1-Information about the story:

This is a true story which was written in twentieth – century in Bahrain. It is a very good story from which people can learn many lessons.

2-Ashort summary about the story:

The story is set in the Bahraini countryside. One day, an old man is on death bed. He tells his wife to collect his sons and sit together. He gives each one a stick and tells them to break it. Each of the three sons break the stick and it is so easy. After that, he ties all the sticks together and gives them to the sons to break. They try and try but they can't break the sticks. The moral of the story is that if we are united, nobody can defeat us.

3-The plot and the characters:

The plot of the story is curious and there is an interesting mixture of characters. The old man, his wife and the sons all play very effective roles in the story. The old man is very wise .

4-The recommendations:

I recommend that you read this story and other Bahraini stories. They are very interesting and well-written.

Reading 1: ( 10 Marks )

Read the following article and then answer the questions that follow accordingly.

Out of Africa

- A. Recently, it has been estimated that around 50 to 60 million hectares of land have been bought or leased in Africa since 2009 in around 20 different countries, including Ethiopia, Kenya, Mozambique, Tanzania, and Ghana. Local land is being used to intensively produce food and flowers for countries in the Middle East, China, and India. The land has been covered with huge greenhouses with in-built ultra-modern irrigation systems. In Ethiopia alone, the government has approved over 800 foreign-financed agricultural projects since 2007. Foreign companies typically lease the land for 99 years, at an annual cost of around 50 cents to one US dollar per hectare. Crops include vegetables, rice, wheat, lentils, flowers, and sugar cane for biofuels.
- B. Governments, global agribusinesses, investment banks, hedge funds, as well as other financial institutions and individuals have been investing money heavily to make money in these mega-farm projects.
- C. The land and labour are very cheap in these parts of Africa so investment costs are low. There has been an increase in demand for cheaper fresh food, and the fresh cut-flower market has seen a boom in recent years. Also, the investments are relatively unregulated and there has been little control.
- D. Local farmers like Obang Odiel and Abraham Solomon have been farming, hunting, and gathering on the land for centuries and now find themselves facing sudden and dramatic changes to their way of life. There has been a lot of debate about whether the overall effect of this investment and these changes has been positive or negative.
- E. Poor farmers need to learn about the new techniques in farming like organic agriculture and have access to the resources they need in order to implement them.

Mobile medicine

Sarubai Salve goes to work twice a day. She leaves her home once at nine o'clock in the morning and then again at six o'clock in the evening to visit people in her village of Jawalke. The village has about 240 families and, with another woman called Babai Sathe, Sarubai is responsible for the health of the village. The two women visit pregnant women and give medicine to some of the older people. Today they are visiting their first patient. Rani Kale doesn't come from Jawalke. She lives about an hour away but her village doesn't have anyone like Sarubai to help mothers-to-be. Sarubai is checking Rani and she is worried about the position of the baby. Rani might need to go to hospital.

Half an hour later, Sarubai and Babai visit another mother with a three-month-old baby. While they are checking the baby, Sarubai also gives the mother advice on nutrition and vaccinations. Jawalke is a very different place because of the two women. They regularly deliver babies and continue to help as the child grows up. There is a shortage of doctors in this region, so village health workers are important because they can give preventative medicine and advice about health.

New health workers go for two weeks of intensive training and then they receive ongoing training. A mobile team visits Jawalke once a week. The team includes a nurse and a doctor. The mobile team meets with Sarubai and they look at any of her patients with serious medical problems. The health workers are an important connection between the mobile team and the local people. Currently there are 300 village health workers in the region and the number is growing.
