وصف مكان

Seef mall"

In Bahrain we have many places to visit. Such as malls, parks, and small islands. But my Favourite one is Seef mall, which is located in Al-Seef suburb.

Seef mall is a very large mall that you can do lots of activities in there. When I go there, my whole family can have fun. First, we do shopping in many famous stores there that sells clothes, shoes, bags and accessorize till we get tired, so we go to the restaurants area to eat something. After that my little sister goes to Magic Island to play and we continue shopping and sometimes we go to watch a movie.

It's a great place to hangout with friends. On the other hand it's very crowded and has a very small car park. Also, it has expensive stocks.

Dear friendship for fast report ,

This is (ebrahim aman). Remember me? We were friends at primary school. We haven't seen each other for about six years.

Anyway. How are you? I got your address from (ali)i. What are you doing now? Are you studying at Hamad town Secondary Girls' school? You always wanted to enter Science major!

At the moment I'm studying at (your school). I think I've changed a lot over the years. I don't like watching cartoons any more – I prefer watching English serieses now. Do you remember (hussain)? She was at my class last year and guess what - we are close friends now!

Well I must stop now because I've got a chemistry exam tomorrow. Write back soon and tell me all about your news.

All the best,

Communication workshop

Imagine you or a friend was involved in a rescue. Write the story for your school magazine.

Last Monday, when I was walking on my way home on the road. Suddenly, two cars crashed into each other.

One of the cars started to get on fire. First, I ran toward the car and saw two men trapped in it. Without thinking, I took a rock from the floor and broke the car's window. So that the other men who were standing there can get them out of the car. One of the men there had already called the ambulance before we got them out, so it came quickly and took them to the hospital. Their skin got burned a little but every thing was under control.

Two days later, I received a bravery award. Now, when it comes to my mind I feel proud of my self and just seeing them continuing their lives normally makes me feel happy. Also, it showed me how precious is life.

Communication Workshop

Last Monday I went with my friends to my best friend Noor birthday party. We all gathered at her home. In addition, some of her relatives were there.

First, we started making the tables and putting the prepared food on them. Then, people began coming and se served them some cold drinks. After that, we began doing our activities from games to poems competitions. Unfortunately, her little brother fell from the stage on the floor, so they took him to the hospital, we knew later that he broke his hand but he is okay now.

Sarah kept taking photos of everything. Other people were eating, chatting or playing games.

At 11:30 pm people started to leave, but we stayed there to a very late hour. In the end, we drank some coffee and ate some sweets. The party was just amazing and we had so much fun there, it was a very special occasion.

A description of a traditional market

In Bahrain, we have plenty of malls and modern shops, but many people prefer traditional markets such as Manama market, which is located in the center of Manama. It opens every day but people prefer to go to it on Thursdays and Fridays.

In Manama market, you can find whatever you want such as clothes, shoes, accessories, glasses carpets and much other stuff. In addition, if you got tired, you do not have to worry about that, you can go to any fast food restaurant there like pizza hut and KFC. Some of their stocks are good but also you can find many bad quality stocks. Moreover, their stocks are always cheap.

For me I do not like to buy anything from their because of its bad quality stocks and the hot weather.
