Writing about a favourite place

My favourite place that I like to go there is "Al-Noor" restaurant. It's a good restaurant in Manama. I like it because the food served there really tasty.

The restaurant is very big. The décor is modern, and the atmosphere is relaxing and romantic. The staff working there are friendly and cheerful, I like talking with them. The menu includes very tasty dishes, like: pizza, pasta and salads. My favourite dish is cheese cake. I go to the restaurant every Saturday with my family.

The only problem with this restaurant is that its prices are very expensive. However I like going there and advice you to go there and try their food.

Dear Manar,

This is Noor Ameer, Remember me? We were friends in Intermediate school. I haven't seen you for about 7 years, Right?

Anyway, How are you? I got your address from Sara Ali. What are you doing these days?. Are you studying? You always wanted to be a teacher!

At the moment I'm studying Accounts at Bahrain University. I think I haven't changed a lot over the years. I still like writing stories and watching horror movies. Do you remember Amal from Intermediate School? She is with me in the same course. We are best friends now.

Well, I must finish now because I must work on my project. Write back soon and tell me all your news.

All the best,
Noor

Writing a story

Last weekend when I was sitting with my sister in the train station, It was raining and very cold. Suddenly we heard a strange voice come from the other way.

We ran to see what happened, and guess what! It was a train's accident, there were many people inside the train screaming, Many of nearby villages came to see what happened. I told one of them to call the police and firemen. After we got help some of people came out and then went back for the other people. Finally the police and firemen came and they took them out the train.

The police thanked us for the help. I thought that is a good thing to help others.

Writing about a party

Last month, We did a nice party to celebrate mother's day at our house. We invited my aunts and told them that my mum don't know about it, because we wanted it to be a surprised party.

First, My dad took us to buy presents. I bought her a golden ring. Then my sister and I cooked some foods. After that we decorated the garden with color lamps and set the table with the food and presents

At the evening my mum came from work and she was surprised with that we did. We gave her the presents and my aunt took some photos of the party. My mum was very happy and was smiling all the time.

At the end we at the dinner and my mum thanked us. It was a really unforgettable day! We had a nice time.

Writing about a party

Last month in May , we had a big family gathering celebrate my sisters birthday , we had it in my house and invited all our family members and friends .

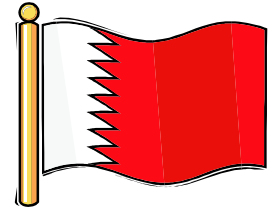

First my dad went to buy the cake and the drinks. Then my aunt came to help us , we cooked a lot of things like : pasta , soup , steak, sweet and pizza . After that people started coming and we served drinks and food. We sing to my sister and I took a lot of photo with them and my sister. I took one horrible photo of my sister when she was angry because my small brother put his hand on the cake and the cake fell down. But my father went to buy another cake . My sister started opening the presents after eating the cake.

The fun went on until late . That night was fantastic and relly I had a great time with all my friends.

Writing about a celebration "National Day"

Bahrainis celebrate many festivals each year. One of these festivals is the National Day. It is celebrated on 16th of December. It's selected from the date of Independence.

Preparations began before weeks. The streets are decorated with flags, color lamps, big posters and pictures for the king of Bahrain. The buildings are decorated too. The celebrations last for three days. On the first day people start the celebration near the National stadium. Boys and girls wear best traditional clothes, various events are held. The people express their loyalty to Bahrain. On the second and third day of the celebration continues. There are fireworks and traditional singing and dancing.

In my opinion the National Day is the happiest time in Bahrain , because all the people enjoy the Activities in this day.

Writing about a celebration "Wedding"

All countries celebrate weddings, Such as Bahrain. The people still celebrates wedding with some old Bahrain traditiona

Big preparations has to be done by the bride and groom. The bride sews a white dress and buy lot of new things, like: clothes, accessories and perfumes. The groom go to men's saloon to improve his beard. And relatives should get prepared too. They buy new beautiful dresses and in the day of wedding they go to saloon to do their hair and put make up. In the party songs are played and every one dances. Every one has a nice time. The wedding is followed by a reception party the next day to wish a good life for the groom and bride.

I think Bahrainis wedding is better than other countries, because they still do traditions. We have a very nice time during the ceremony.

Writing about street market

There is a market called "Thursday Market", because it's held every Thursday. You can find it in Hamad Town.

In this market lots of stalls sell different kind of products. Some of them sell clothes. They are fashionable and have high prices. And some other stalls sell food like fruits and vegetables, which are fresh and at the same time their prices are good. You can also see some sell accessories and make-up. Their quality is not very good. They also sell DVDs and CDs too, which have high quality.

The only problem with the market is that it's not held in the afternoons and the weather is very hot. However I go there because they have a good products. I recommend you to go there because you can find really good bargains.
