(3) Comparing life in the past to today's life

Today's life is completely different from life in the past. A long time ago , people lived in simple houses made of wood or mud . Today people live in modern houses that are fully-equipped with all means of comfort . In the past, . most people used to work on the land Nowadays, a lot of people work in offices . Seventy years ago , people used to travel on horses and camels. Today , people travel to other places by cars , buses , trains and planes .A longtime ago ,children didn't use to go to school . Nowadays , they go to schools and universities . Thirty years ago , people didn't use to have mobile phones or . Computers . Today , people enjoy using modern technology. In the past , people didn't use to go to hospitals for treatment . Now , hospitals and medical centers are available everywhere . In brief , life is easier . today than it was in the past

5-(story) The worst night of my life

*Last Friday, my mother, my sister and I decided to visit my grandfather. It was a nice and a clam night .While my mum .was driving, my sister and I were chatting

Suddenly, a big lorry jumped in front of our car, my mother shouted in anger but she couldn't control the car. It hit the lorry and then a light post at the side of the road. My sister shouted for help. My mum's head was bleeding I didn't know what to do. I ran out of the car crying for help some people stopped and helped my mum and sister out of .the car

After a short while, the ambulance arrived and took us to the hospital. My mum was treated and she went home with me but my sister was still in the hospital with two .broken legs and some injuries

* I was happy to be back home but in fact It was the worst night of my life.

4-(Describing a production process)

(making chocolate in a factory)

To begin with the beans of cocoa are roasted at the temperature of 135 c. Next the beans are crushed to remove the outer shells. Following this the inner parts of beans are pressed to be liquid chocolate. After that some sugar and milk are added to the liquid chocolate. Then the mixture is poured into moulds to cool down. Finally the bars of chocolate are wrapped in a foil and paper.

(5) A scary story / A strange dream

* I have been having some strange dreams lately. But I will tell you about my last one. www.hj.com/bh

 I dreamt that I was in my house and it was really dark. It was in a real mess. There were dirty clothes and trash everywhere. I was sitting on the couch watching T V. Suddenly, the T V went off I thought it was a simple Power outage, so I went to the light switch to check. I turned it on but the lights did not turn on. I gave up and walked to my room.

* I decided to lay in bed and read a book under a candle. After an hour I felt tired. I put the book away and tried to sleep but I awoke from a white glow. I looked up at the light in fear A voice said, "Do not be afraid of me" and then the white glow turned red as the voice once again said, "WHY ARE YOU SCARED? WHY?". Then, everything around me was red as the voice said "I exist".

*I woke up from this scary nightmare as I thought. "Thank god, It was all a dream." I went to my bathroom and what I saw in the mirror put me in shock. Written in bright red blood were the words "I exist".
