A for and against essay

Write a for and against essay discussing the following statement:

(Women are better (teachers) than men)

Some people think that women are better (teachers) than men. However, others think that women make worse (teachers) . The idea that women make worse (teachers) is a stereotype. There are different views on this controversial question, although there are a number of reasons why a woman's personality makes her a more component (teacher).

Firstly, women are more patient and polite towards other people. They are more sympathetic to others. In stressful situations, they are more likely to stay calm. Secondly, women are more cautious and pay more attention to details. Thirdly, they are more responsible and better organizers.

On the other hand, many people argue that women can make a lot of problems as they can be indecisive or react slowly because they lack confidence. In addition, they are easily distracted so they cannot take decisions quickly. Moreover, they usually deal with their affection which affect their decisions.

To sum up, it can be seen that women make better (teachers) because of their personality. This is supported by the fact that women have more organization and responsibility. Overall, it is clear that women are less nervous than men so they are better (teachers).
