Writing Model

Two cities, many experiences.

Manama and Muharraq are two big cities in the Kingdom of Bahrain. Each reflects the country's rich history in its way. Although these two main Bahraini cities share many similarities, they have many differences. This essay will shed light on how these two cities are similar and different.

Manama and Muharraq are similar in many ways. To start with, Manama and Muharraq are located just across a bridge from each other. This makes them share similar prime location in the Kingdom of Bahrain. Manama is located in the center of Bahrain and close to the sea. Similarly, Muharraq is an island which makes it surrounded by the sea. This makes both cities have beautiful beaches and sea views. Moreover, both Manama and Muharraq reflect Bahrain's rich history. Both cities have national forts which are UNESCO World Heritage Sites. Added to this, both cities are main tourist destinations. Many visitors choose to stay at these two cities while visiting Bahrain as both cities have a wide variety of resorts and hotels. Manama has many malls, such as City Centre Bahrain and the Avenues Mall. Likewise, there are many shopping malls in Muharraq such as the Mall of Dilmunia and the Galleria Mall. When it comes to traditional markers, both Manama and Muharraq have local markets such as Manama Souq in Manama and Souq Al-Baraha in Muharraq.

Although the two cities share many similarities, there are many differences that make each city unique. To begin with, Manama is the capital city and it is the center of finance and business. Most of the banks, government entities as well as companies are located in Manama. Muharraq, on the other hand has only few companies and business. Muharraq has a calmer and more traditional lifestyle and atmosphere, whereas Manama has a more modern and fast-paced atmosphere. While Manama is considered top one tourist destination in Bahrain, Muharraq has the International Airport which is the only airport in the kingdom.

In conclusion, Manama and Muharraq are two big and main cities in the Kingdom of Bahrain which unique in their own ways but share some similarities such as tourist attractions, shopping destinations and Bahraini cultural heritage.
