Reading (7 Marks):

Read the following reviews given by four people about different hotels, then answer the questions that follow accordingly.

Patsy:

The first thing we noticed on entering our room was how small it was. Our rooms were clean, but the bed cover was stained. The furniture was really outdated, especially the bathroom, which had an old pink suite and linoleum on the floor. The 'shower' was a hose that you fit onto the taps. The sink was in the bedroom, next to the television sockets which seems pretty unsafe to me. We had dinner there, and it was well-cooked. The drinks were overpriced for only a small glass of Pepsi or Coke. I would like to say the hotel was very costly.

Bo.omar90*Mellow:

The Coach Hotel was very good value for money. I had requested a quiet room and this was noted at reception. I got a great room - large, comfortable and clean, with a seating area overlooking the racecourse. The only disappointing thing was that there were no tea/coffee facilities in the room. The furniture and decor was not particularly up-to-date, but that's what you would expect from an old hotel. There was a wide selection of well-cooked food on offer. In the evening, I had a delicious three-course meal, and I was served so quickly.

Tom:

The hotel is just 200 metres walk away from the racecourse, so it's really convenient. The bed was comfortable with clean cotton sheets. Good power shower. The room needed some attention – it smelt musty and the furniture was old and cheap. The bin hadn't been emptied from previous guests, and there was other rubbish on the floor. The fan in the bathroom was very loud, and the plumbing made strange noises in the night. The walls were thin too. Breakfast was okay, but there wasn't much of it.

Jade:

Don't be fooled by the pictures online. What you see is definitely NOT what you get! First, it's not close to the city centre – it's at least a 35 minute walk. Furniture was old and dated, although the bed was comfortable. No lock on the bathroom door and no toiletries, not even soap. The dining room is dark, with no windows except one tiny one. The food simply was the type that gives Britain a bad name. Service was poor, with staff clearing the table while we were still eating.
