Describing a Place (City Centre)

My favourite place to go to is the City Centre. I think it is a nice mall located in Manama near the coast. I usually go there at weekends to have a nice time with my family and friends.

It is the biggest and most modern shopping mall in Bahrain. It was built five years ago. First, the mall, with all its shops, was built. Secondly, a year later, the hotels and an indoor water park were built.

The mall consists of three floors. Each floor has a lot of shops selling different items. You can find anything you need from toys for your kids to the best in fashion. There are a lot of facilities in the mall including two 4-and-5-star hotels, cafes, a big food court and local and international restaurants. The mall also has many lifts and escalators to take you upstairs where there is a big Suq area as well as a big mosque with toilets for men and women. The mall also has a six-level car park, which makes it easy for you to find a park for your car.

As for entertainment, you can have fun in the cinemas and funfair there. Bahrain City Centre is special because it has a very big indoor water park, Wahoo!, the biggest in the Middle East, The staff in the mall is friendly and helpful. They can give you all the information you need.

The atmosphere in Bahrain City Centre is cozy and relaxing. Besides, the place is air-conditioned. When I go there I have a lot of fun. I enjoy shopping, eating and chatting with my friends. Every time I go I have the best time of my life.

Finally, the City Centre is the most fun place I go to. It is big and lovely. And I love to go there with my friends and family.

Describing a Place (Egypt)

There are many places you can visit to spend a wonderful time on holidays. But I think Egypt is the best holiday resort I have ever been to. It is located in the north of Africa. I usually go there on holidays to have a nice time with my family and friends.

Egypt is the biggest Arab country as about 100 million people live there. It has an area of about 1 million square kilometres. Most of the land is desert. The history of the nation goes back to more than 7000 years, to the Pharaonic times. Egypt is known as the Gift of the Nile and the cradle of civilization.

There are many famous places to visit such as the Giza Pyramids, the Great Sphinx, the Citadel, the Zoo, the Panorama, the Temples at Luxor and Aswan, the Valley of Kings... etc. There are also the wonderful resorts on the Red Sea coast as well as the Mediterranean Sea coast. Moreover, there is the Nile with its amazing landscapes on both sides. The climate is pleasant all year round. The people in Egypt are kind and friendly and are always ready to help you at any time.

Tourists can enjoy different activities at the different resorts such as swimming, diving and water skiing. They can also have Nile cruises. They can do the shopping at the modern malls. For going out, Egypt has the best International Airport and for moving around the country, there are lots of railways and highways.

Finally, Egypt is the most fun place I like to go to on holidays. It has the best tourist attractions, the finest weather, the kindest people as well as the most wonderful shopping areas. My friends, family and I wouldn't spend our vacations anywhere else.

Describing a person

My favourite character is called Adel Imam. He is an Egyptian film star. He is 72 years old. He is one of the best comedy actors I have ever seen. He was born in Cairo. He is married and has got two sons, Moh'd and Essam. He is interested in watching TV, travelling and reading books. He likes all kinds of sport and eating healthy food. He hates eating fast food such as burger and pizza.

He has got a funny face that keeps you laugh all the time. His eyes are black as well as his hair. He is short and well-built. He is so cheerful and friendly. He always wears neat clothes, and he sometimes wears formal clothes. You can smell his perfume when you meet him. He is very helpful, generous and kind. He is also hardworking and committed.

Adel Imam is a very sociable person. He is creative and always gives special ideas. He starred so many movies like Al-Erhab and Kabab in 1980 and Bekheet & Adeela in 1990. He also starred some famous plays like "Shahed Mashafshe Haga" in 1980 and "Al-Zaeem" in 2002. He wants to be the best actor in the world. I think Adel Imam is one of the rare actors whose films and plays are worth watching.

Imam had a great and important influence on my life. I am not exaggerating to say he changed my whole life. He taught me how to be positive regardless any difficulties. He helped me to be self-dependent, kind and charitable. He also taught me not to judge people by their appearances but by the content of their characters.

To conclude, Imam is such a nice person that I always enjoy being in his company. I love him because he is modest and very kind. I can't imagine life without him. I wish him all the best.

Describing a person

I've got three brothers but my favourite one is Harry. He's the oldest; he's twenty-six and he's in his last year at university. He's studying aeronautical engineering because he loves aeroplanes. Whenever he sees one in the sky, he stops and tells me what type it is. His two dreams are to make aeroplanes for a large company and to fly his own plane .

I think he's very attractive but he's very shy. He's quite tall, about 1 metre 90. He's not very strong or athletic. He's got big dark eyes and curly brown hair like my mother. He's got big hands and long fingers. He could be a great pianist or even a basketball player. I really like his smile-it's one of his nicest features. He wears casual clothes-jeans, a shirt and a jumper. He doesn't like to wear trainers; he likes comfortable shoes .

What I really like about him is that he is patient and generous. He always helps me with my homework even if he has an important exam the next day. I know I sometimes get on his nerves because I'm a bit slow with Maths but he never shouts or gets angry. Although he's a bit shy, he's easygoing and fun to be with. He loves taking our dog for a walk early in the morning .

He loves reading and going to the cinema. He spends a lot of time reading science-fiction novels and every Saturday he goes to the cinema with his friends. He also likes sports, but he is not a fanatic like my other brothers who watch every football match there is on TV. He hasn't got many friends. I love my other brothers too, but Harry is somebody really special to me .

Describing an Object “My Gold Watch”

My gold watch is a very precious treasure that has special meaning for me because it was a present from my father. My father was abroad on business when he knew about my success in the final exam. He bought it and gave it to me when he came back. He was very happy, and I was very happy too. My watch is an original Japanese one. It is a digital watch with a lot of options. It tells me the time, the date, the temperature and the directions. It is yellow with some red spots on it. Its belt is made of gold. My watch is very delicate, elegant and smart. If anyone sees my watch, they admire it. All my friends tried to buy a similar watch to mine but they couldn't find one. I plan to take very good care of my watch because someday I will give it to my son as a present when he passes his final exam. I always remember my father and ask Allah to bless him for everything he did for me and for giving me that beautiful watch.

Describing an Object “My favourite Gift”

Every one of us loves certain objects because they are special. I love books most of all. My friend gave it to me because I love reading. I got it on Sunday 11, 2010. It was the most beautiful day. I was in a coffee shop with my sister. These books are available in the Bookcase in Budaiya .

The book is very big in size. It has the perfect size to get into my bag. It has a rectangular shape. It has a dark navy blue colour. It is my favourite colour. It is made of cardboard and leather. It has a hard cover with soft papers. It is made in South Korea. It is published by Namasan Press. It is written by Lee Young Su. He is a famous writer. It costs about B.D 20. It is a reasonable price .

I read the book in my free time. I can use it everywhere. I am the only person who can use it. It makes my life better. It can help me have a great imagination. It is fun and educational .

To sum up, there will always be items in our lives that we can never live without. Books will always be my special ones. I truly feel joyful when I read it. I think it is useful, because it is a gift from my friend. The thing that I like most about it is the cover .

Example Essay: An Ideal Teacher

The teacher is the most important person for everybody on earth. He is an important key to success. The most important characteristics an ideal teacher should have are competence, patience and a good sense of humour.

It is very important for a teacher to be competent. This means that he should have enough skill and knowledge to teach his subject well. For example, he should be well-prepared to answer any of his students' unexpected questions during the lesson. He should also use various and suitable techniques and activities to ensure his students' learning.

An ideal teacher should also be patient. For instance, he should not be annoyed if he is asked to repeat or to clarify any ambiguous or tricky points in his subject. He ought to give weak students enough time to have their chance and right to learn.

And last, an ideal teacher should be nice and humorous. This means that he should have the cheerful spirit that makes his work funny and amusing. For example, pupils appreciate much more lessons punctuated with jokes or puns than lessons where the teacher only talks to himself.

In conclusion, I would like to say that the above-mentioned characteristics are the most important ones, though there are some other necessary qualities. An ideal teacher should have an outstanding personality and should be a good model for students to follow in everything.

Example Essay: An Ideal Teacher

The teacher is the most important person for everybody on earth. He is an important key to success. The most important characteristics an ideal teacher should have are competence, patience, courtesy and a good sense of humour.

It is very important for a teacher to be competent. This means that he should have enough skill and knowledge to teach his subject well and to the necessary standard. For example, he should be well-prepared to answer any of his students' unexpected questions during the lesson. He should also use various and suitable techniques and activities to insure his students' learning, taking into consideration the individual differences among them. He should create new ideas and techniques that serve the learning process and contribute to the development of his students.

An ideal teacher should also be patient. For instance, he should never lose his patience in class when students ask questions repeatedly. He should also be ready to explain each and every aspect of the topic in the easiest way. He should not be annoyed if he is asked to repeat or to clarify any ambiguous or tricky points in his subject. He should also bear in mind that students are different in backgrounds, cultures, and beliefs. He ought to give weak students enough time to have their chance and right to learn.

Showing courtesy is another important characteristic of an ideal teacher. This means that he should have good manners and should treat his students in a way that shows respect and politeness towards them. He should also be passionate and caring and should help them solve the problems they face at school.

And last, an ideal teacher should be nice and humorous. This means that he should have the cheerful spirit that makes his work funny and amusing. For a change, the teacher should create a cheerful environment in the class. For example, pupils appreciate much more lessons punctuated with jokes or puns than lessons where the teacher only talks to himself, without changing his tone and pace, which results in a boring lesson.

In conclusion, I would like to say that the above-mentioned characteristics are the most important ones, though there are some other necessary qualities such as creativity, enthusiasm, sensibility, fairness, honesty and others. An ideal teacher should have an outstanding personality and should be a good model for students to follow in everything.

Process Essays

A Dinner Party

People hold different parties like wedding parties, birthday parties, dinner parties and the like to celebrate different occasions. A dinner party is a social gathering at which people eat dinner together, usually in the host's home. It is easy to have a good dinner party if you follow some easy steps.

First, choose an appropriate date at least two weeks before the party. You can have it on a holiday or a weekend to ensure the attendance of all the guests. Next, make a list of the people that you would like to invite. You can include your family members and relatives in the list. Then make a funny or pretty invitation and email it to your friends. You can invite them on the phone instead.

A few days before the party, start cleaning the house. After your house is clean, go shopping for food, flowers and decorations. After you have everything you need, plan a meal and make sure you can cook most of it before your guests arrive. Before the guests arrive, decorate the house, set the table and take a shower. Finally, turn on the music and wait for the fun to begin.

To sum up, any party needs good preparations beforehand. If you follow the above-mentioned steps carefully, you will certainly have a successful dinner party and will have a wonderful time.

How to Make Pasta

Pasta is an Italian dish. It is very tasty and I like to eat it. You can have for dinner or for lunch. It is easy to make pasta if you follow some easy steps.

Before beginning the process, make sure you have all the ingredients needed for making pasta like chicken, shrimps, macaroni, Italian spices, Swiss cheese, white and red sauce. Also, you will need vegetables like potatoes, onions and tomatoes. Don't forget the cooking tools like cooking pans, plates and spoons.

First, boil the macaroni in the cooking pan until it becomes tender. Second, cook the chicken and the shrimps with the Italian spices until they are ready. Next, add the vegetables and the sauce with the macaroni. Then put the cooked chicken and the shrimps into the macaroni. Finally, add the Swiss cheese and leave it until it melts. Remember that you must boil the macaroni alone. Also you must cook the chicken and the shrimps with the Italian spices or the pasta will not be tasty. And you should not add the cheese until you have cooked everything together.

Finally, the result will be a tasty Italian pasta. Just serve it on a plate with a drink. You can eat it at any time. And it is not difficult or hard to make.

Opinion Essays

Studying Abroad

Many people travel abroad for many purposes. One of them is studying. I think that studying abroad is considered one of the best ways to take care of your future and to build a good one. The following benefits justify my support for studying abroad.

First, there is no doubt that studying abroad contributes to the educational development of our students. Our students have a chance to get high levels of education due to the courses presented in the high reputable schools, institutions and universities of foreign countries. One of my cousins studied in America for four years and came back holding high certificates that qualified him to get a high post in a well-known university in our country.

In addition, while studying abroad, students can learn about new cultures, and the customs and traditions of other nations. They can meet new people and get to know their ways of thinking as well as their lifestyles.

Acquiring a new language is another benefit of studying abroad. Students have to speak the native language of the foreign country they study in so as to be able to understand others and to be understood by them. All the people around them use the native language to communicate with other people in universities, shops, streets and even at home. This helps students to learn the mother tongue of the country they live in fast and well.

To conclude, students should seek to have a good career by studying in good places. This can be achieved by studying abroad as it helps them get a high level of education, acquire a new language and learn about a new culture.

Manama, the capital city of Bahrain.

In Bahrain, the best place to live in is Manama, the capital city. For many reasons, this wonderful city has the perfect atmosphere for anyone to begin their life and plan their future. The following reasons justify my great love for living in Manama.

First of all, the scenery provides a beautiful setting for living and working. The climate is pleasant all year round. When the sun shines, Manama is cheerful and lively. My cousin lives there with his family and he has never left the city for any other place on holidays. He considers it the best holiday resort ever.

Second, there are a lot of tourist attractions like Bahrain National Museum, the gold city as well as the famous mosques and churches. It also has luxurious hotels like Hilton and Sheraton. You can visit these places and have fun with your family and friends.

In addition, it is easy to get a job in various companies for a good pay. The cost of living is not so high. You can rent a flat to live in for a reasonable price. There are also local and international restaurants serving tasty meals for cheap prices. The people living in Manama are friendly and polite; you feel like living among the members of your family. They are always there for help when you need them.

As for entertainment, you can do some sports like swimming, skiing and fishing. Children can have fun in the water garden and the funfair there.

To sum up, living in Manama is so cozy and comfortable for its spectacular scenery, wonderful attractions, friendly people and fantastic places of entertainment. In fact, I wouldn't live anywhere else.

Narrative Essays

(1) It was a foggy cold night in winter. My friends Ali, Omar, Adel and I decided to go trekking in The Mountains. We met at 10 pm in my house. At 10:30, we set off.

We arrived after two hours. When we had got everything ready, we started trekking. After we had walked a few miles, the sky became cloudy. Just then it started to rain heavily.

Luckily we found a cave, and we stayed in it until the rain stopped. In the morning, we were all scared because there was a dead man in the cave!! A few minutes later Adel started to cry, and Ali was frozen in his place. Immediately, we ran fast to find help. While we were running, we met a police constable and we told him about the dead man that we saw in the cave. After that, he called the police office and asked us some questions about why we were there, when we saw the dead man and where. When the other police men arrived, they asked us to take them to the cave and go home.

After that terrible journey we were at home. My friends and I were tired and afraid. In the end, we read in the newspaper that the police men caught the killer, but they said that they found the dead man not us!! At last, we felt comfortable and a bit happy.

(2) It was a nice day in spring when my friends and I decided to have our dinner out. We met at my house and my father offered to give us a lift. On that day, the weather was cool with a gentle breeze refreshing us.

On the way to the restaurant, we were talking and laughing. It seemed a perfect day for the outing. So, we expected to have a nice evening. Or we thought so.

When we arrived at the restaurant, it was full of people. Some were eating; others were talking or ordering their meals. The sound of soft music was everywhere. We were having our meal when I smelt something burning. In a moment, the restaurant was full of smoke. The whole place was on fire.

Some people were coughing. Others were screaming. Ladies and children were shouting for help. We all rushed towards the door but it was locked. We were trapped. I thought it was the end.

Luckily, the firemen came and controlled the fire. I did not believe myself when I could breathe fresh air. In a moment, we were in the car. We felt happy we were back home again.

(3) I will never forget August the 8th. It was the summer holiday. My sister Dana and I were in China taking part in a conference. It was the weekend when we decided to go shopping at 8.00 a.m. While we were in the elevator it broke down! So, we had to wait for 15 minutes till the maintenance officer fixed the trouble. When we left the hotel, the weather was cloudy.

We had taken a taxi to drive us to the shopping area. After a few minutes, we noticed that the taxi driver was gazing at my sister. Just then he started to flirt us. Immediately we asked him to stop and we got out of the car.

As we were near the shopping area, we decided to walk till there. Unfortunately, it rained heavily. Worse than that, my sister and I were wearing white clothes that got so dirty due to the heavy rain.

When we reached the shopping area, everyone was looking at us and we were in an ironical situation. That was nothing compared with what happened inside the first shop we entered! At that shop, we started to select some items to buy. However, when we went to the checkout area we discovered that we lost our wallet! So, we had to return all the things we were about to buy.

Because we were with no money, we were impelled to get back to the hotel on foot. However, the trouble did not leave us. And guess what happened? My sandal was cut off! At that moment, I was very angry and embarrassed. When lastly we were at our room in the hotel, we discovered that we did not take the wallet from the beginning. Whenever we remember that day, we cannot stop laughing!

(4) It was a cool night and I was lying awake in bed. My brother, Ali, was sleeping peacefully on the other side of the room. He had come home late and was tired. I didn't know what had woken me up, but I felt that something was wrong.

Suddenly, I smelt a strange burning smell. I sat up in bed. "Ali!" I said. "What is it?" Ali asked, as he opened his eyes. "Can you smell smoke?" I asked. Ali sniffed the air. "Yes," he said. "Oh no! The house is on fire!"

We were very frightened. We jumped out of bed and ran onto the landing منبسط الدرج. Flames were slowly climbing up the stairs. The air was hot and thick with smoke. "You wake Mum and Dad," I said. "I have to call the fire brigade فرقة المطافي."

When the fire brigade arrived, the whole family were standing by an upstairs window. The firefighters climbed up a ladder and carried them down to safety. Then, they put out the fire with long hoses.

As soon as the fire was finally out, one of the firefighters came over to us. "You were very brave," he said. "You acted very quickly. Well done!" Everybody smiled. We were relieved that the nightmare was over.

(5) It was a bright, sunny day and the start of the summer holidays. "Let's all go out for a walk in the hills!" my dad said. So, we quickly packed a picnic, jumped into the car and set out for the countryside.

When we got there, we parked the car and had a lovely long walk. Then, while we were enjoying our picnic, we noticed big, black clouds above us. Suddenly there was a loud clap of thunder قرعة الرعد and huge raindrops began to fall. We cleared away أزال our picnic and ran under some nearby trees.

Soon, the storm was directly overhead. "It's not safe under these trees," Mum said. "Let's go back to the car." A few seconds after we all started running, there was an enormous cracking noise تكسير behind us. Then, I felt a strange tingling خز feeling all over my body. I looked back at the trees. They were black and two of them were flat on the ground.

We all got into the car shaking with fear. "I don't believe it!" Dad gasped لهث. "Lightning struck the trees we were just standing beneath!" My arm still felt strange and my brother's hair was standing on end. We all looked at each other in horror. What a lucky escape!

(6) It was a bright, sunny day as Ahmed and Khaled set off to visit some friends in the next town, which was about an hour's drive away. Ahmed had just bought a new car and he wanted to show it to his friends.

As they were driving along, they noticed dark clouds gathering and after about a quarter of an hour, heavy rain started pouring down so hard that Ahmed could hardly see where he was going. He decided to pull over يقف بجانب الطريق until the storm passed.

Ahmed and Khaled were sitting in the car, looking out at the rain when suddenly they felt the car moving. Ahmed rolled down the window and looked out. They were parked at the top of a hill and the rain was flowing down the hillside, turning it into a river of mud. The car started to slip down the hill! At the bottom of the hill, there was a deep lake.

Ahmed started honking ترميز the horn to attract attention. Suddenly a fire engine appeared at the top of the hill. The firefighters quickly realized what was happening and pulled out a long rope. They threw it down to the car. Ahmed caught it and tied it to the car and then the fire engine pulled the car slowly back up to the top of the hill. It was a lucky escape.
