Stop-Motion Animation

Hans Weise is a film director who makes many different kinds of films. He likes making animations. There aren't usually any actors in these films so Hans uses paper or clay models instead. He works with a designer, Fernando Baptista, to make models of the people, places and objects. Fernando paints the models and then Hans takes photos of them. After he takes a photo, he moves the models. Then he takes another photo. At the end, he puts all the photos together to make a film. This is called 'stop-motion animation'.

Film director: A person who makes a film.

Animation: A film people make with drawings or models.

Models: A small copy of something.

Designer: A person who draws how to make something.
