Royal Charity Organization

Read the text carefully then answer the questions below.

The Royal Charity Organization (RCO) was established in 2001, its main goal is to support orphans, widows and elderly. Since then, RCO worked to provide financial and social care for those people.

In 2007, His Majesty King Hamad Bin Isa Al-Khalifa ordered for HRH Nasser Bin Hamad Al-Khalifa, son of His Majesty the King, to be the Chairman of the Board of Trustees. RCO looks after people with special needs, elderly and orphans. It also provides them with social, medical and educational assistance and it has helped so many helpless people.

In 2009, RCO contributed in the relief of the Palestinian people in Gaza strip. This was considered the first drop followed by many other humanitarians' supports for friendly countries in need such as Syria and Yemen.

RCO supported over 39,000 helpless cases and will continue to give support to those who are in need and it accepts donations at any time on their website.
