F: What size would you like sir?

M: 12, please.

F: Here you are.

M: Thank you. My eldest daughter Mariam likes wearing jeans and T-shirts, so I think she would like that pair of jeans. Can I have the bootcut style, please?

F: How about these, Sir?

M: Yes, but I think she needs a bigger size.

F: Anything else, Sir?

M: Yes, please. I want a nice jacket for my daughter Manal, she's 12.

F: This one is nice and it comes with a matching hat.

M: Okay, but she doesn't like green. Do you have it in red? It's her favourite colour.

F: Yes, we do, but without a matching hat.

M: That's okay. And something for my son Abdulla. He's 10 and he wants new shoes.

F: I think he'll like this pair of boots, they're on special offer.

M: I don't think so because he likes playing football.

F: How about these trainers?

M: Yes, it's his favourite team's colour. Size 37, please.

F: Is that all Sir?

M: No! I still need something for little Sara. She'll be 4 next month. I want a nice dress.

F: This will be a nice birthday gift. I'm sure she'll look like a princess in it.

M: And what do you have for my 9-month-old Yousif. Can I have something for the winter?

F: How about this jumper, Sir?

M: No. I think this hat will be great.

F: It comes with matching gloves.

So put the date Friday February 21st in your diary. Now to get these tickets you have to text the word ‘music’ to me here at the radio station by nine o’clock tonight. But – now listen up – you must tell your parents what you’re going to do, so they know about the concert as well. When I get your text, I’ll text you back if you are one of the lucky winners. We’ll send you not one but two tickets so that you can take your brother, sister or a friend. It’ll be a great evening, lots of bands and different groups and a surprise guest all the way from China, but I’m not going to tell you who it is! So switch your mobiles on and good luck! Hi, Noor - I'm Ahlam. I missed you today. On Tuesday next week, the science teacher is taking the best students on a trip to North Park. We are lucky to be two of them. I heard there are lots of animals there and the place is amazing. The tickets are two dinars but there is a special discount for students, so each of us will pay one dinar. It's really cheap. I'm really excited because I've never been there. We should take our meals with us. Our teacher says we can take photos so don't forget to bring your camera. She also says that we can't feed the monkeys because it's dangerous to be too close to them. But it's ok to feed the ducks in the pond. We will leave the park at twelve thirty and will be back to school at one o'clock. I think this trip will help us with our projects. You know our teacher always organises competitions for the best trip report. The winner will get a book and I think we will have a chance to win.

F: Hi, Uncle Mark. I'm fine, thanks. How are you?

M: I'm great. I heard you're doing an Arabic course. Is that true?

F: Actually, I finished it last month. I was going to take a Spanish course, but decided to start a French course instead.

M: Is it in the East Language Centre?

- F: Yes! It's the only place where I could find a seat. The International Language Centre has closed and Young Language Centre has a long waiting list.
- M: Are you taking evening classes?
- F: No. I go there after school. I finish school at two o'clock and I usually get back home at three so I can have enough time to get ready. My class starts at four o'clock. It's a lot of work, but it's only two days a week and I'm enjoying the course greatly.
- M: I guess so. And how do you go there? Do you take the bus?
- F: I can go by bus of course, but I don't. The centre is not far from my house, so I usually walk there. Mum took me once by car because I was late. But it only happened once.
- M: Oh, I see. And how much does the course cost?
- F: Children's courses are cheap. They cost 100 pounds a month. Since I joined early, I was lucky to have a special discount. I got the course for 75 pounds only. But adult courses are more expensive. They are 180 pounds.
- M: Sounds fine. And what about the books? Do you have to pay for them?
- F: The books are free and so is the exam. We only pay for the certificate at the end of the course.
- M: That's great. I think I will join a course myself. I have always wanted to learn French.
