When I was a student at university, I got a job as a waiter at a café. On my second day(0)..... the job, one of my teachers, Mr Higgins, came to have a cup of coffee. He was sitting alone, so I went to talk to him. He remembered my name(1)..... we were talking for some time.(2)..... we talked for a while about school work and grades and I forgot about asking him what he wants to order. He ordered a cup(3)..... coffee and I went back to the kitchen to get it; I was trying to make a really good impression on(4)..... teacher but in the end I made a fool of myself. I was standing(5)..... to Mr Higgins with his cup of coffee in my hand ready to give it to him(6)..... something terrible happened. A little girl was running around the café and she ran into me and I(7)..... on Mr Higgins. There(8)..... coffee everywhere, especially on Mr Higgins' suit.

- A. The last programme in this interesting series was about the extinction of dinosaurs. Some scientists think that dinosaurs died because they didn't have any food after the climate changed.
- B. This was an important game against Germany but we didn't play well. Germany scored in the first minute and they played well. The English team attacked but they didn't score. The second half was very boring. I didn't like the result or the game!
- C. Last night was the tennis tournament final. Twelve million people watched this exciting final. I liked Mark but he didn't Win. Michelle had the highest score and won the competition.
- D. In this film, Spider-Man had a new enemy "Doctor Octopus". The film did not have a very good story but the acting was good. Tobey Maguire and Kirsten Dunst were great and the fight scenes were amazing.
- E. Trees differ from a country to another, even in one country there are different types of trees. For example, there are 700 types of trees in North America. But there are 10,000 different types of tree in tropical rainforests!
- F. Clothes change from time to time and every period has it's own special type of clothes. For a real 70s look, you need flared trousers or jeans. They can be any colour but remember the trouser legs must be very wide!
- G. Elephants, giraffes, zebras, lions and many other wild animals live in Tanzania. There are many National Parks in Tanzania. It's an attractive country to visit if you love animals and safaris.

C. Read the following text. Then answer the questions below.

Schools are Special in their Own Way

Marguerite Laure is from Cameroon. She gets up at five thirty and walks two kilometres to school. She has six lessons every day. She starts school at seven thirty and she finishes at half past three. In the evening, Marguerite helps her mother at home, works in the fields and does her homework for an hour and a half. She studies ten subjects and what is special about her school is that she studies three languages, French, English and German.

Carol Simons doesn't go to school. Her school, 'The School of the Air', is in Alice Springs in central Australia and she lives on a farm 800 kilometres away! Carol studies eight subjects and is in a 'class' of ten students. Every day, she has one thirty-minute lesson on the radio and sometimes she has video lessons. She studies at home for five or six hours a day and she e-mails her homework to her teacher. Carol's teacher sometimes flies to her farm and meets her. Carol sometimes goes to Alice Springs for classes or for a sports camp.

Jonathan Fonseca is from Guadalajara in Mexico. In his school, some students go to school in the morning and some students in the afternoon. Jonathan goes to school in the afternoon. Every day, he has seven lessons, from two o'clock to eight o'clock. In the morning, he does his homework for two or three hours and then visits friends. On school days, he arrives home at ten o'clock at night. Jonathan does nine subjects and his favourite subject is history because they study it by performing plays as projects.

Mariam Ahmed is from Muharraq in Bahrain. She goes to school for girls only. She starts school at 7:00 in the morning and finishes at 2:15 in the afternoon; she has seven classes a day. She studies 10 subject each year, but her favourite is Sports because her school has a tennis team and she's a member in it. Every year they have tournaments that she participates in and meets her teammates and other teams, she has a lot of fun there.
