Ask Deena

The great problem solver!

Dear Deena,

Hello, Deena! I'm a businessman, I'm going to be forty five years old by the end of June. I'm little bit fat and need to lose weight. My wife says that my clothes are old fashioned and that it's time to go shopping to buy new ones. Deena, it's true that my shoes, shirts and jeans are almost 20 years old, but I like them- they feel comfortable! Also, I just don't like to go shopping for clothes. It takes a long time to find clothes that I like, and I don't like fitting rooms- they are too small. Should I go shopping with my wife to buy new clothes, or should I keep wearing my old ones?

George

Dear Deena,

Hey, Deena! I'm eleven years old and I have a pet. It's a cute little white and grey cat. His name is fluffy. Sometimes I put clothes on fluffy - my friends like it when I put red cap and a yellow scarf on him! But my mother gets angry when I do this. Deena, why does my mother get angry? How can I make her change her mind and let me put more clothes on fluffy? Am I wrong? What's your opinion about this?

Billy

Dear Deena,

Hi Deena! I love to read your fashion advice columns, I read them every week. Maybe you can help me - my husband is a vet. His birthday is next week, and I want him to buy some new clothes. He doesn't care about fashion or buying any new clothes and whenever he buys he would choose colourful old fashioned ones. I think it's time to buy him some new ones. I'm thinking of buying him a new necktie or maybe a jacket as it's getting cold these days. Do you think going shopping together to buy him a birthday present is a good idea? Or, should I surprise him?
