Listen to Janet Barton talking on a TV program about her life as a student in London. Then choose the correct answer.

Hello, everybody. I'm Janet Barton a student in the University of London. I also have an unusual job. I'm a clown. Don't be surprised! I work as a clown every weekend. It's a nice job and it costs me nothing. I go to children's birthday parties, tell stories and sing children songs. I never let the children see me before I put on my clown's customs. Therefore, I always try to arrive at the parties early to be ready when the young guests arrive. At the parties I tell the kids a long story and as I always do I ask the children to help me finish it. Children like helping me and it is always good fun. This weekend I'm going to a boy's 7th birthday party in London and I will have fun. I love my job and it's a good way to get some money. You might ask yourself why I work as a clown. London is expensive for students! Before I became a clown I used to go out with my friends and do some sports, but nowadays clowns' shows are my interest. I watch them whenever I have free time.

Listen to a conversation between a sport club receptionist and Ricky Thomson. Then fill in a club card.

Receptionist: Good morning sir, how can I help you?

Ricky: Hello, I read about your club and mid season offer and I'm here to join your club if possible.

Receptionist: You are most welcome. What's your name, please?

Ricky: Ricky Thomson.

Receptionist: May I have your address please?

Ricky: oh I'm not good in remembering numbers let me check my ID card. Ok! It is house number 2134 road number 248 block number 279 Doha.

Receptionist: And what's your telephone number?

Ricky: 2334567

Receptionist: How old are you?

Ricky: I'm 23.

Receptionist: And are you American?

Ricky: No, I'm English.

Receptionist: What do you do for living Ricky?

Ricky: I'm still a student at medical school.

Receptionist: Really! And what are your favourite sports, Ricky?

Ricky: karate and Judo, but what I like most is swimming.

Receptionist: Oh, but judo and swimming classes are already full.

Ricky: Ok. Karate is enough.

Receptionist: Ok then, Ricky. Have you got a photo?

Ricky: Yes, but it isn't very good. Here you are

Receptionist: Thanks. This photo is ok. Your club number is 4839. It isn't too long, is it?

Ricky: Not at all.

Receptionist: The club starts at nine in the morning and finishes at five in the afternoon. As I told you, you won't be able to have judo or swimming classes, so your Karate classes are going to be on Saturday at eleven and Sunday at twelve.
