Farah Al Qahtani

For breakfast I have bread with cheese, eggs, yogurt and tea. Lunch is at 2.30. It is usually a big meal, with lots of different dishes. Perhaps some chicken or fish with rice- 'kabsa' -vegetables, hummus and tomato sauce. We drink fruit juice or water with the meal.

We have dinner at 8. Traditionally the evening meal was much smaller than lunch, but now it is the biggest meal of the day.

I like eating out more often but I don't have time. I am a nurse and I live near the hospital so I walk to work. It's my only exercise!

Masumi Takahashi

I get up early to have breakfast at 6:00. Then try to catch the train to work. In Japan, we have rice at every meal. I'm a manager and at 12.00 I have lunch in my break time, which is usually small dishes of rice, fish, vegetables, eggs, and sometimes meat.

In the evening, my family and I have fish with beans or rice.

At the weekend, I like cooking small dishes for my family. We don't put a lot of food on our plate, so we don't eat too much.

Richard Welty

I eat little and early. I have toast and cereal for breakfast and salad for lunch at about 11.30. For dinner, I usually eat chicken, fish or seafood. If I have a snack between meals, it's always fruit.

I ride my bike to work across Brooklyn Bridge, and run 10 kilometres a day. I'd like to run the New York Marathon this year. I'm a waiter, so I'm on my feet all day.

Too many people in this country don't eat right. They say they don't have time to buy food and cook, so they snack all the time.

I like chatting with my friends about food, recipes and new restaurants.

C.I- Read the previous passage again then fill in the table. (8x1=8 marks)
