C. Read the following text about “Sleeping Disorders”. Then answer the questions below.

Sleeping disorders

Most of us have experienced trouble sleeping at one time or another. This is normal and usually temporary, due to stress or other outside factors. But if sleep problems are a regular occurrence and interfere with your daily life, you may be suffering from a sleep disorder.

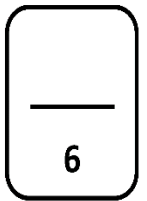

There are many different problems you can have with sleeping. Some are medical problems where you need to see a doctor, others are just annoying.

Sleepwalking is probably the most common sleeping disorder. It can be just sitting up in bed while you are asleep or walking around and doing activities, where accidents can happen. These activities can be normal activities like walking to the bathroom or cleaning or doing dangerous activities like cooking and driving a car.

Some people have even said they were sleepwalking when they committed a crime. Sleepwalking can last from 30 seconds to 30 minutes. Sleepwalkers show no emotion on their faces and their eyes are open. However, they don't remember anything when they wake up.

Insomnia is not being able to sleep. This happens to most people at some point, but when it lasts for a long time, it can be bad for your health. The Guinness World Records used to have world records for people staying awake, but they stopped because it is too dangerous. Some people have somniphobia, which is the fear of sleeping. They are too scared to go to sleep, perhaps because of nightmares that they have had or sometimes they are scared they will die in their sleep. Narcolepsy, on the other hand, is not being able to stay awake. People with this disorder often do not sleep well at night. This causes them to be so tired during the day that they cannot stop themselves from falling asleep. Obviously, this can be quite embarrassing.

A. Are these statements True (T) or False (F)? Circle the right answer. (4x1.5=6 marks)

1. Sleepwalkers smile while walking at night.

T F

2. People who have got insomnia fear having nightmares or dying while they are sleeping.

T F

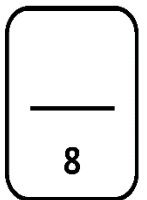

3. People who have got somniphobia cannot sleep and stay awake for a long time.

T F

4. People who have got narcolepsy cannot stop themselves from falling asleep.

C. Read the following text about “Amazing Creatures”. Then answer the questions below.

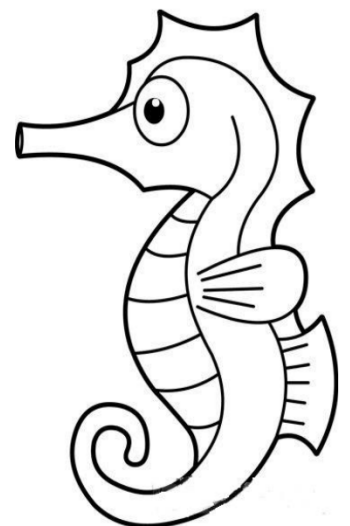

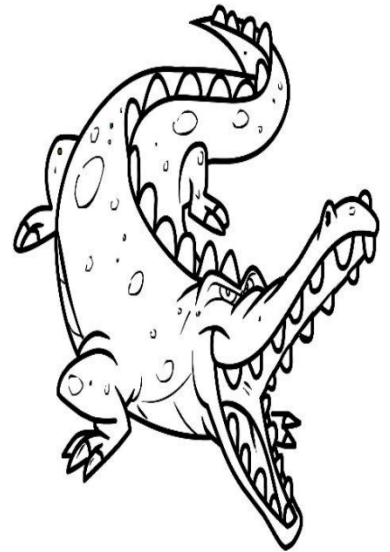

Amazing Creatures

Our Planet is home to about 30 million different kinds of animals. They are beautiful, they are special and they always amaze us!

Chameleons live in a variety of habitats, from rain forests and lowlands to deserts, semi-deserts, and even mountains. Many inhabit trees, but some live in grass or on small bushes, fallen leaves, or dry branches. They eat bugs and they are famous for their ability to change colour, their sticky tongue, and their eyes which can be moved into different directions at the same time. This helps them to spot their enemies and their food. As a chameleon grows, its skin does not. When it gets tight, they lose it. Their old skin is quite tasty so they often eat it. Yummy! If you see a chameleon sleeping during the day, or with one or both eyes closed, then it is sick. They never sleep during the day.

Crocodiles are large reptiles found in tropical regions of Africa, Asia, the Americas and Australia. They normally live near lakes, rivers, wetlands and even some saltwater regions. They run fast and sometimes jump to catch their food. When they see their food, they open their strong jaws and swallow it. The food goes straight down to their stomach. Crocodiles grow new teeth to replace their old ones all the times but they never clean their teeth and they cannot move their tongues!

Seahorses or “hippocampus” mainly live in shallow tropical and temperate waters throughout the world. They are found in Pacific waters from North America to South America. They can change colour to protect themselves from enemies. Male seahorses are the only males on the planet that have babies! The female leaves her eggs in the male’s pouch. The male carries them for a month. After one month, a thousand of tiny babies come to life. Seahorses have one partner during their lifetime. Each morning the couples dance together. Their dance usually lasts for several minutes.

A. Are these statements True (T) or False (F)? Circle the right answer. (6x1=6 marks)

Dear John,.....

Hi! How are you? I'm on holiday now in Dubai. I'm writing to tell you about my holiday.

We are staying in a 5-star hotel by the sea. Now mum and dad are relaxing on the sandy beach. My brother and sister are swimming in the sea. Yesterday, we visited the Khalifa Tower. We also did a lot of shopping in Dubai Mall.....

Dubai is a wonderful place. We are so happy, but we haven't bought any souvenirs yet. Don't worry I'll keep one for you.

Well, that's all for now. Write back soon.

Best wishes,

Ah/Alia

Last week you went to Bahrain national museum, write an article about that visit.

"A visit to Bahrain Museum"

Last week, our teacher took us to "Bahrain National Museum". It is located in Manama. It is an important place in Bahrain.

The museum is huge and you can't see everything but we saw a lot of amazing things. We saw gold rings, silver plates, oil painting historical costumes, antique furniture and old coins. Also, our teacher gave us a lot of information about the museum.

When we finished our tour, we went to the museum shop where we bought some cool souvenirs. After that we took some great photos.

We had a great time. Don't miss the museum. It's a wonderful place.

Imagine that you lived in Bahrain 100 years ago. Write an article about life in Bahrain 100 years ago to your school magazine. Use the plan below to help you write your article:

- (Paragraph 1): introduction
- (Paragraph 2): how people used to live (clothes, travel, work entertainment, etc.)
- (Paragraph 3): your feelings and opinion .

Life in the Past

People in Bahrain used to live a totally different life in the past. They used to live in tents or small houses made mostly of mud. They used to wear traditional light clothes. They didn't have means of transport except camels and horses. They didn't have electricity. So, they lived under the lights of candles.

There were no facilities as the ones we enjoy today like TVs, computers or magazines. So the only way of amusement was doing some traditional sports.

Work in the past was hard and tiring. People used to work long hours for less. Life in the past was difficult and tough but it was quiet, simple and calm.

On the 16th of December Bahrainis celebrate “the National Day”. Write an article for your school magazine on how you celebrate this event. Use the plan below to help you write your article:

- (Paragraph 1): introduce the National Day
- (Paragraph 2): describe how Bahrainis celebrate the National Day
- (Paragraph 3): your feelings and opinion

Bahrain National Day

Bahrain National Day is on December 16th. People wear traditional costumes and put up streamers and pictures of the royal family.

In the morning, students go to the stadium to attend the festivals. They carry flags of Bahrain, play music and sing songs.

In the afternoon, people eat local dishes and go out to celebrate. Some people go to the theme park. Other people go to the cinema. Others go out to watch the streets... parades... or... the... fireworks... display... It... is... a wonderful festival.

A friend of yours is having a difficulty learning English. He had bad marks in his English exam and he wants to improve his English. He has sent you an email asking for some advice. Write your reply. Follow this plan: (100- 120 words)

- Paragraph 1: (opening remarks) offer help
- Paragraph 2: (main body) give advice & explain results
- Paragraph 3: (closing remarks) end your email

Dear Naif,

How are you? I am writing this letter because I heard that you got low marks in your English exam. Anyhow don't worry! There are many things you can do to improve your English. Here is my advice.

First, you should listen well to your teacher and write down what he says and study it. You should also read and study hard and try to know new words. That can help you to know English better. Secondly, why don't you try to listen to English songs or watch movies on TV and try to understand and translate the difficult words. For example, you can learn 5 words a day. You should also spend more time on studying English. Lastly, you should not waste your time.

That's all for now. Write back and tell me if my advice helped you.

Best wishes,

Mahmood

Write an email to your friend, Ali, telling him about your last summer job. You can plan your email into:

Paragraph 1: (opening remarks) Greetings

- Paragraph 2: (main body) details of the job
- Paragraph 3: (closing remarks) end your email

Dear Ali,

Hi! How are you? Guess what- I've got a summer job as a waiter in "Yum Yum Tree Restaurant".

In the morning, I clean the restaurant and tidy the chairs. In the afternoon, I serve the costumers and answer their orders. After that, I wash the dishes and organize the restaurant.

So far, I like the job. Why don't you apply for this job you don't need experience, But you need to be funny and friendly because you deal with people all the time.

Anyway, that's all for now. Write back soon.

Love,

Hassan
