READING 2

Read this short story and answer the questions that follow.

One night in 1995, Joanna Sinclair left work late and got into her car. It was a dark night, and quiet cold. All she wanted to do was to get back to her warm little house in the country and watch TV in front of the fire. She was half – way home, on a quiet country road, when she saw something lying in the road in front of her. So she stopped the car. It looked like a little baby in the middle of the road. She got out of her car and walked towards it. But when she got closer, she saw that it was just a toy doll, so she picked it up and threw it to the side of the road. Then she got back into her car and drove off. Suddenly there was a car behind her. The driver flashed the lights and beeped the horn. Joanna felt a little frightened, so she drove faster. The car behind her went faster too, and kept on flashing its lights. The car followed her into her house in the village where she lived in. Joanna was scared, so she got out of her car and ran towards her front door. A tall man got out of the car behind and ran towards her. 'Wait', he shouted. 'What do you want?' cried Joanna. 'I have to tell you,' he said, 'There is someone in the back of your car!' Joanna looked at her car and suddenly the back door opened. Another man jumped out and ran away down the street! 'I saw him get into your car when you stopped,' explained the tall man.
