(A persuasive letter to save an endangered animal) unit 5

Write a persuasive letter (110-130 words) to the editor of a newspaper or magazine about why we should protect an unusual, or endangered animal of your choice. Persuade your readers why you should protect it and support your point of view with facts. . S.B p.91

You can use the following phrases to connect ideas:

as a result of- because -for this/these reason(s)-therefore

- say what animal you are going to write about
- mention some facts about it and the reasons why you should protect it (two at least)
- write the end of the letter and sign it.

Dear Editor,

I am writing to ask for support to protect an endangered animal, the axolotl. It lives in Mexico now, but scientists believe that it could be extinct in the next few years. However, it isn't as attractive as other endangered animals. As a result, it doesn't get very much attention.

In my view, the axolotl has an amazing ability: if it loses a part of its body, it can grow it back. Therefore, scientists are interested in studying them. Another interesting fact about the axolotl is that it never becomes an adult or grows old. For this reason, scientists believe that we can find out about the secret of aging from the axolotl.

For all of the above reasons, I strongly believe that we should do everything possible to save this amazing creature.

Thank you for your attention,

Zainab Ali

(Water waste) unit 6

You spent the weekend at one of the famous hotels in Bahrain and you noticed that too much water was wasted. Now write a letter of complaint to the hotel manager in 110-130 words to complain about that water waste.

You can use the following phrases: as a result of – because-for this/these reason(s)- therefore

Write about the following points:

- Mention the reason for writing the complaint.
- Mention how people waste water.
- Write about the bad effects of water waste.
- Write a conclusion.

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing this letter to tell you about the problem of wasting water I have seen during my stay in the hotel. It is due to the bad use of the taps in the swimming pools, restaurants and in the rooms.

It is very bad to see that many families in the hotel leave the taps running . Running taps lead to the lack of water. Also, many of these taps are in need of repair and maintenance. All of this leads to a large amount of wasting water. Water wasted in this way could serve the needs of a large number of people.

For these reasons, I would kindly request you to stop this and take an action. I believe we must do everything we can to save this gift.

Thank you for your attention.

Best regards,

Sara Ali

(Food waste) unit6

Dear Manager,

I am writing to complain about the amount of food waste in your restaurant every day. That is because the portions you serve are too big to finish. As a result a lot of food goes in the bin. This is too bad when we know that we waste 1.3 billions tons of food every year.

Food waste isn't just bad for humans, it affects our environment ,too. When it goes to landfill it produces a dangerous gas that keeps heat inside of the atmosphere. Also, the chemicals that come out of the food harm our soil and bodies of water. Thus, we waste our natural resources.

For these reasons, I believe you will do everything possible to reduce food waste in your restaurant.

Thank you for your attention.

Best regards,

Hend Ahmed

Unit 7

Imagine you are going to create a piece of public art in your school or community.

Explain how you will create it in 110-130 words. Include the following:

- an introduction of how to paint a wall
- a paragraph that describes details of the steps to paint a wall.
- use word phrases and link words to connect sentences.
- a conclusion that includes your overall opinion

public art is paintings that make the place very beautiful. They can be done on the walls of schools or streets. They can also be done on wood or plastic. Public art usually has a message behind it. Here are some simple steps to create a public art in your school.

First, prepare the wall and the design. Second, create an outline of the shape. Then create sketches of the image. Next, add details to it. Add light and bright colours , avoid colours that make the space seem smaller. After that, to paint a mural outside, you will need harsh paint that can tolerate the weather. Finally, once the core shapes have been painted on the wall, add a protection seal coat or spray varnish.

In conclusion, painting a mural is easy, but it requires having some techniques. It is a very beautiful way of expressing ideas.

Unit 8

Write a true story about survival in 110-130 words. It could be about yourself, someone you know or a famous person. Follow the narrative essay layout

1-First, a paragraph introducing a person (people) and a place(s). Include more details.

2. Second, a paragraph including details about the event(s) and the problem

3-Finally, conclude the essay with closing sentences.

(how the problem was solved and the message/lesson learned)

Story

Unforgettable day

Last Friday was my friend's birthday party . It was raining so I was frightened to drive, but I really wanted to go to my friend's party.

While I was driving, a car crashed into mine. I got out of my car to see what happened. An old lady came out from her car and was worried, I tried to calm her down and told her not to worry because we were safe. Then we got into our cars .

I arrived late to the party. My friend was angrily, but when I told her the story, she hugged me and told me "I'm happy that you are alive".

It was the best party ever, we were dancing and singing all night. We were very happy. It was really an unforgettable day.
