LISTENING TAPESCRIPTS

There are two parts in this listening exam. You must answer them both. You will hear each part twice. For each part of the exam, there will be time for you to look through the questions and time for you to check your answers.

Now look at Part 1

Listening: Part1

There are six questions in this part. For each question, there are three pictures and a short recording. Choose the correct picture and put a tick (✓) in the box below it. You will hear the recording twice.

You have two minutes to read the questions. [pause]

Now we are ready to start. Listen carefully. You will hear the recording twice.

Number 1: Where are the dictionaries?

Man: As this is your first visit to the library, I'll show you round. As you can see, shelves are clearly labelled according to subject. You may take most books home with you but some, such as foreign language dictionaries, must stay in the library. These can be found over there behind the computers and it's best if you take them to the desks by the window and study them there. Or you can use these armchairs if you prefer to sit somewhere more comfortable.

Number 2: Which evening dress does the woman decide to wear?

Man: Why are you taking so long to decide what to wear tomorrow night? The black dress with the long sleeves will be fine!

Woman: Mmm... Long sleeves are a bit uncomfortable, but yes, it's a nice dress. Trouble is, I've lent my short-sleeved dress to Angela. That would be perfect, it's a long dress with a wide belt . . . Anyway, let's see what I've got here . . . this one, also black, short sleeved — but it's got white flowers on the sleeves.

Man: Why don't you phone Angela and get your dress back?

Woman: Yes, I think I will.

Number 3: What is the man's job now?

Man: When I was young, I used to paint. I always dreamed of being an artist, painting pictures for a living. But I didn't do very well at school and so I left early to join my dad working in the family photography business. After a few years of that I got bored, and felt I wanted to go back and study. That's when I did my degree and teacher training, and I've taught photography ever since, although I still paint in my spare time.

Number 4: Which calendar will the boy buy?

Boy: Mum asked me to buy her a calendar. Shall I get this one with pictures of mountains, or this one with boats on it?

Girl: She loves boats and sailing, so get that one. I like that one with wild animals, but I don't suppose Mum would. And you can't get the one with mountains because she had that last year.

Boy: Yes, I know. I'll get the one you suggested then.

Number 5: Where is the boy's hat?

Mum: Where's your new hat, Sam? I hope you haven't left it on the school bus.

Sam: Don't worry, Mum. I was too hot but I'm sure I didn't leave it on the bus.

Mum: Are you sure? I can't see it anywhere. You probably dropped it in the classroom somewhere.

Sam: Oh, here it is — in my school bag. I think I put it there when I was hot.

Number 6: Where will the friends meet?

Girl: Hi, it's Maria. Got your message. Yeah, I'd like to go to the movies. There's a film called Light world Two, or a comedy - I don't mind which... Shall we meet outside the cinema?

Boy: Or, I know, at the coffee bar on the corner, we could have a snack before we go in. We could meet at the bus stop.

Girl: Mum's driving me into town this afternoon, to buy some trainers, so I won't have to get the bus, but something to eat first is a good idea. Shall we say six o'clock?

Boy: OK.

Now look at Part 2

Listening: Part2

You will hear a radio programme about some historic places to visit. For each question (1-6), fill in the missing information in the numbered spaces with one word or numbers only. You will hear the recording twice.

You now have two minutes to look at Part2. [pause]

Now we are ready to start. Listen carefully. You will hear the recording twice.

Man: Are you interested in history? Well, I'd like to tell you about some of the historic places open to visitors in this part of the country.

Let's start with the oldest first. Black Rock Caves have been here for over two million years. And, for half a million years, they were home to people and various animals, particularly tigers. You can explore these ancient homes and imagine what life was like for the people who lived there. The caves are open daily from April to October. A special attraction on evenings in August is a walk by candlelight. Don't take this tour if you are afraid of the dark! Next, I recommend a visit to Salter House. This was built by Sir Joshua Salter and dates back to seventeen sixty-five. The Salter family are still living there today. The house became famous in nineteen eighty-two when the television series Aunt Dorothy was filmed there. The furniture and paintings are well worth seeing, but the attraction nobody wants to miss is the kitchen. This is where Aunt Dorothy cooked her enormous meals and gave advice to anyone who passed through this part of the house. And don't forget to visit The Old Port. You will need several hours to see everything there, especially if you take a trip along the riverside in an old tram as far as the fishing village. The guides there all wear traditional costume and you too get the chance to try on clothes from a hundred years ago. You can buy gifts in the old village stores and eat delicious snacks in the Tea Shop. If you visit the village factory, you can see how sweets were made a hundred years ago, and taste them, too. So, you see there's plenty of...
