Lulu Hyper Market in Riffa is the best place that you can go shopping and get items for low prices. There you can find everything you need from food, clothes, furniture, electronics and lots more. The shopping there is really interesting; you will enjoy the bargains and special offers. It's always open from 9am till midnight.

The most popular house style in Bahrain is the two storey house. It was built by the British during 1950s and 1960s . It is made of brick walls. It's medium size. It has a flat roof. It consists of two floors. On the ground floor, there are a living room, a kitchen and a toilet. On the first floor, there are a small hall, three bedrooms and bathrooms. It has a staircase, ceramic and carpet floor. It has furniture like beds, sofas, tables, chairs and cupboards, as well as important appliances such as oven, TV, fridge, and washing machine. It has a high fence with a garage, a balcony and a small garden. I really like this type of houses because it's small easy to be cleaned and safe.

Last year, my father went to Hajj in Mecca. He wore "Ihram". My father and the pilgrims went to the great mosque in Mecca, and they gathered around the Ka'bah seven times.

The imam was leading in prayers. The greater hajj "Al hajj Al-Akbar" starts on the 7th day of the sacred month . On this day my father and the pilgrims left Mecca to Arafat. After sunset, they left for Muzdalifa where they can gather pebbles for the stoning of the jamarat.

On the 10th day it's "EidulAladha" , they returned to Mina where they throw seven pebbles at the large jamarah. Finally, they felt so happy and excited.

Bahrain National Day

Every year on the 16th of December Bahraini people celebrate The National Day of Bahrain. The celebration lasts for three days.

We have a holiday on the 16th and 17th of December. On these days people remember the achievements and progress that have been made since 16th December 1971. We celebrate with huge fireworks display, a laser show and many other competitions.

People really enjoy their time during The National Day of Bahrain specially kids who prefer to wear traditional clothes.

Gergaon is a traditional festival in Bahrain and some Arabian countries . It takes place in the middle of Ramadanmonth .Many people celebrate this special event in different ways .

Kids go from one house to another to collect money , sweets and nuts . They decorate the place with colorful flags and lights . In the streets, each house puts tables full of traditional food like 'Khanfaroosh ,gamaat ... etc ' . People and kids wear traditional colorful clothes like ' Thoub Al Nashnel and Bukhnug ' . They sing special songs to ask Allah to protect their kids .

I really enjoy this special festival . It is amazing walking in the decorated streets to see how people share their happiness . The most thing which I liked is 'Alfreasah ' which is a wooden horse covered with colorful traditional clothes. I wish everyone attend this event sothey can enjoy this special day . Don't miss it .

If you are looking for an exciting meal and a fun dining experience, you must visit “Al-SawaniRestaurant” .

It’s located in Manama next to Bahrain National Museum .It offers a large variety of Arabic food and a buffet lunch at reasonable prices. The food is really delicious like (Machboos and Barayni). The décor from outside is housed in a traditional wind-towered building and in the inside is brightly-lit. The atmosphere is relaxed and friendly. The service is so fast and the staff is very friendly and cheerful.

It’s a great place for a family night out. You should try it .

Writing (8) (Writing book review) not in the SB!!

The book is written by DrMoh'd Saud and describes the life of a princess in Saudi Arabia, Princess Sultana Bin Al Saud.

Princess Sultana describes how life for women in Saudi Arabia is so difficult, how they feel like prisoners and have no power to make decisions. 13 years old girls get married to 63 years old men! Women get killed by drowning them in the family's swimming pool for adultery, while others are kept in a room with no windows. Boys there are treated like kings, while girls are treated like puppets.

I really loved the book, but I think that the writer wasn't truly honest about some of the events; he described some of them in a monstrous way that we, Muslims, would never believe that such thing can happen!

Writing (9) (Writing Pros and Cons Essay)

Going sailing is an enjoyable activity for some people while for others it is the last thing they want to do in their spare time. There are certain pros and cons of going sailing.

Going sailing has its advantages. To start with ,it is a healthy ,active, outdoor activity , therefore it can help a person to get fit. Also, it is a fun activity that can be exciting.

However, There are some disadvantages to sailing , too, Firstly , going sailing can be expensive as boat and equipment hire costs a lot of money. In addition it can be quite dangerous in bad weathers. Boating accidents can easily happen in a storm and people could fall overboard.

To sum up, sailing has positive and negative points which need to be taken into consideration before you take up the sport.

The Unforgettable Day

Last summer holiday, my father decided to take us to the zoo to spend a day there. The weather was hot and sunny. We really wanted to go for a change as we were in Bahrain and didn't travel.

My mother prepared some yummy snacks to take with us. My sister was helping my mother when my father called and said "Hurry up, we should go now". We tried to get ready fast and my brother was looking for his camera when suddenly he found it on the table in the middle of the living room.

We arrived to the zoo, the weather unfortunately was really hot but we didn't want anything to make us feel upset. So we decided to enjoy our time to the maximum. We played, we walked around, we had our snacks and we took some pictures. Suddenly we heard someone screaming "Help..help!". We ran so fast towards the sound to find out what was going on. We saw a girl was crying because her little brother fell down and was bleeding. I was shocked. My father immediately called the ambulance and they came fast and helped the little boy.

It was an unforgettable day, it was my first time to see someone bleeding that much. But I was happy at the end that everything was solved. I wish to visit the same place next time with my family but during our winter holiday.
