Dear Salim,

How are you? It is nice to hear from you .I hope this information helps you with your report about money in India.

The Indian Rupee is the official currency of India. It is issued by the Reserve of India. The rupee is subdivided into 100 paise. The symbol for the Indian Rupee was adopted in 2010. The reverse side of Rupee banknotes shows amount in 15 of India's official languages. In India, currency paper is made of cotton. It is not a paper but a cloth with look and feel of paper. Rupee coins are made of several metals such as copper, silver, zinc and aluminum. It is very easy to produce coins. The Indian rupee notes have two sides. On the front side there is the face of Mahatma Gandhi. People in all India respect this leader .They consider him as a father of India .He helped poor people and supported the freedom . On the back side there are different pictures according to the notes rating .The banks in India change the design of banknotes every three years.

I hope that these information will help you.

Best wishes,

Ali
