Last Saturday, Sara saw a little dog lying on the side of the road and it looked hurt. She walked up to it and it was crying. She thought it was hit by a car. She told her mom and she said she would take it to the doctor.

Sara's mom put the dog in the back seat of the car, on a blanket, and they went to the clinic. The doctor looked at the dog, he said that it had a broken leg and he treated it. Then, he looked at his notebook and felt happy because a woman phoned him before and asked if anyone saw her dog.

The doctor was happy because he found the women's pet and he gave Sara a candy. Her mom was happy too. Sara felt proud about herself because she did a good thing.
