I love football , so I joined the football team in my school .

Last week there was a match between my school and another school , we made a great effort to win the game .

After winning the game ; my coach praised me and I got the best player trophy . My coach said he would make me play in the school team . So there will be a great chance to play in one of the famous clubs .

Mother is giving, love and tenderness. Each of us remembers the great role his mother has played in making him a successful person .

She spent the night working at our leisure , taking care of the patient and suffering the pain , preparing the different types of food , so that each of us eat the food he loves , cleaning our clothes to be in the most beautiful image and cleaning the house to make us feel comfortable

The mother is the first teacher responsible for education , teaching good customs and traditions . The child learns good behavior from his mother She teaches him honesty , respecting others , helping the poor and other good behaviors. Therefore, every son must obey and respect his mother

التعليم

Education is the most important means of progress. Education works to develop an individual's abilities. When a person is well-educated, he or she will become an innovator or scientist in his or her field of study.

Scientists and inventors are responsible for development and progress. All the countries that made progress were interested in education first.

When there is an engineer, a scientifically distinguished worker, the industry will develop and compete with developed countries. We do not need to import, but there is enough local production. Production may increase and become exporters. If the doctor is proficient in his specialty, he will be able to diagnose the disease and prescribe appropriate treatment. And thus get rid of many of the diseases prevalent among people. The person becomes in good health, able to work and produce.

From the above, the importance of education to the progress of countries is evident.

التلوث

Pollution has many types, including pollution of the environment, such as water pollution, food pollution or air pollution. There is another type of pollution such as audio, visual or intellectual pollution.

All previous types of pollution are harmful to humans, some of which cause serious diseases, which make him unable to work

Including what affects the person psychologically, which spoils the public taste and helps to increase violence in society

It is therefore necessary to know the causes of pollution and develop solutions to eliminate these causes

الصديق

Each of us needs a friend who support him in his various stages of life, and often the true friendship is formed in the stages of primary education, especially the secondary and university level.

This friendship continues and develops and grows over time. This is due to the passing of friends of positions and crises show the importance of the friend.

In crises, the friend stands next to his friend and supports him. The friend rejoices in the joy of his friend, and grieves when his friend be in trouble.

المراهقين

Adolescence is the age from 12 to 17 years, during which a person moves from a young child to an adult who must act like an adult.

What makes this stage difficult for the teenager is that he feels many changes, whether in his physical composition or in his mind, which makes him feel confused and anxious.

There are some teenagers who misunderstand this stage, and they try to imitate adults in harmful matters such as smoking and addiction.

That is why parents must intervene and help the teenagers, so that they can pass the stage safely.
