Listening 2

Three years ago I decided to invite two of my friends from Britain to visit Oman .David and his wife arrived to Oman by the end of November. First I took them to the hotel to have a rest after the long journey . Next morning I took them in my car around Muscat .They felt excited when they saw Al Jalali and Al Mirani Forts in Mutrah. The next day I drove my four wheel car to Al Sharqiya Sands. They liked the scene there very much. They took some great pictures. We spent two nights there .They enjoyed the camel riding. They felt afraid at the beginning because it was their first time to ride a camel but later they liked it. Unfortunately I had a problem in my car so we took a taxi from Bidiya to Nizwa. The journey was long but it was full of beautiful scenes. They enjoyed looking at the green farms, the high mountains and the modern buildings along the road. They visited Nizwa Souk and they bought some presents for their friends and families .Before they returned back to London ,they promised to visit Oman again.
