They met Ali's friend called Paul and went together for a tour around Paris. Ali enjoyed his time a lot with his family because they stayed there for about thirty days. Finally, they went to London the Capital city of Britain. They saw Big Ben and took so many pictures around the city. Ali liked Paris the most because it is a very quiet city at that time. Listening 2

A zoo is a place where animals are put on display for people to see. The word "zoo" is the short form for "zoological park." Zoos have wide varieties of animals from all parts of the Earth. The model of the modern, public zoo became popular in 18th century. The first modern zoo was built in 1793. It was opened in France. The facility is still a busy and popular zoo in downtown Paris. There are different types of zoos; Urban Zoos, Safari Parks and Petting Zoos. Urban Zoos are located in large cities. This type was popular 200 years ago. It is smaller than other zoos. In many urban zoos, animals are kept in relatively small enclosures. They are common in Europe, Safari Parks are larger than urban Zoos. Safari parks are areas where tourists can drive their own cars to see non-native wildlife animals living in large, enclosed areas. These attractions allow the animals more space than the small enclosures of traditional zoos. Petting zoos have animals that are gentle enough for children to pet and feed. Sheep, goats, donkeys, and rabbits are common petting zoo animals. Children can see these animals and feed them when they visit petting zoos.

READING 2 (Items 5 – 10) (6 marks)

Read the text. Then complete the task.

Dear friend,

I want to tell you about my last trip to New Zealand. I travelled with my family and we stayed for a week in Wellington. After that, we went to Kaikoura where we saw the whales and dolphins. It was my first time to see the lovely dolphins.

Next day, I sailed with my family on a small boat to see dolphins. I was looking around to find any of them. Suddenly, my brother shouted 'dolphins'. There were more than ten dolphins, all swimming towards our boat. Many of them were jumping around into the air. I thought that they were inviting us to go and play with them. So, I put on my swimming suit and jumped into the sea. I remembered the guide had told us to make sounds to call the dolphins. So, I did and really heard them making similar sounds, as if they were trying to answer me. It made me think of how clever and beautiful these creatures are. After an hour of swimming with my brother, the guide called us to get back onto the boat. I'll never forget that experience, Kaikoura will always have a special place in my heart.

Sincerely,
Bader

Dear Samia,

Hi friend! I am sorry I didn't write earlier as my family moved to Dar es Salam because of my father's job.

Dar es Salam is a great city with many beautiful places to visit. Last Sunday, our teacher took us on a trip to Dar es salam Zoo. There are many animals. We could get close to them and gave them some food. Well, you know that I love monkeys a lot, so I took lots of photos of them.

Here, you do not have to worry about food as there are many restaurants such as the Indian and Thai restaurant. Last night my family and I went to a popular restaurant called Karafuu. The food was delicious. However, my friends here told me about another restaurant called Mamboz that I'd like to visit next time.

The weather in Dar es Salam keeps changing. When we first came here, we all got sick and I spent a week on bed, so I couldn't go to school. It rained all day and night! Later we knew that there are two rainy seasons: "the long rains" in April and May and "the short rains" in November and December.

That's all about me. How about you ?

Sincerely,
Mona
