Listening Script 1:

- 1. The Kaaba is a large building in al-Masjid al-Haram in Mecca. Muslims believe that the Kaaba was built by the command of Allah.
- 2. The Great wall of China is one of the longest structures. Its main purpose was protection against attacks from the north.
- 3. The Statue of Liberty is a gift from France to the United States as an enduring symbol of freedom. It's located in New York Harbor.
- 4. The leaning tower of Pisa is a building in Italy. It is a bell tower. It is famous because it leans to one side.
- 5. Old buildings such as forts and the towers show the history and creativity of the country they reflect the lifestyle that was there.

Listening Script 2 :

People around the world wear various types of clothes. Clothes differ in colour, style and the purpose they are worn for. Our clothes in Oman are unique and they are a sign of Omani culture. Unfortunately, some young people in my town started to wear clothes that do not belong to our culture. For example, some wear a piece of clothes that looks like a dishdasha with short sleeves and a pocket on the chest area. It is almost dark in colour. You can't sometimes recognize that they are Omanis until you hear them talking. The malls, public parks and even in mosques. We should keep our culture alive. A tourist from a nearby country said to me 'I admire Omanis because they always wear their national costume and they keep their own life style'. Visitors who come from different parts of the world would like to see all elements of our culture, so we should wear our own clothes.
