Dear Majid,

Thanks for your last letter. I hope you are fine. I'm writing to you from London where I'm spending my summer holiday with my sister Anna. As you know, London is the capital city of England and it's on the River Thames. It's really awesome. Anna and I are staying in a nice youth hostel, very close to the city center.

On the first day of our stay here, we spent a wonderful time on a fantastic flight. In only 30 minutes, we flew over London's most famous landmarks. After the flight, Anna and I went to watch Changing the Guard, which takes place inside the Buckingham Palace.

It was really amazing. Later, we had a nice walk along the riverside in the evening. I was amazed by London at night. We haven't been long here. Today is our third day in London, but we've already noticed that people here are very busy people. They're in a hurry all the time. But I think that Londoners are quite nice and friendly. I don't like English food because it's tasteless and greasy.

We're going to visit the British Museum today and we've planned to visit Tower of London, Tower Bridge, on Sunday. We have too little time to visit all the places, we would like to, so I think that I must come back here next summer. Maybe you would go with me. What do you think? We'll talk about it when we meet.

Love from

Jack
