Dear David,

I was glad to hear from you and happy to know about your best time of the year. It seems much fun spending time with your grandparents in the country. I would like to tell you about my interesting experience as well. Every year in June, my brother and I go to camp. We go to camp for two weeks. It's really enjoyable! Our parents drive us to the camp. The camp is almost one hundred miles from our home. I really think camp is a great experience. We get to stay in cabins. There are twelve boys in each cabin. Sometimes we have pillow fights with our friends in the cabin. During the day, we can swim, play football, ride horses, hike, or fish. My brother and I like to do all of those things. We eat our meals in a dining hall. The food at our camp is always good. The best thing about camp which happens at night, really wonderful. We have campfires after dark every night, it's the most wonderful thing I enjoy. We all gather there to sing songs, roast marshmallows, and listen to stories. Our counselor tells exciting stories. We will be going to camp soon. It will be so much fun. I can't wait! Its' really an interesting experience. I wish you can join us. Hope to hear from you soon.

Best regards,

Alex

LISTENING 2 (Items 6–10)(5 marks)

You are going to hear a text about Deng Yaping.

For each item, shade in the bubble next to the correct option.

Dr. Deng Yaping is a well-known Chinese table tennis player. She is one of the greatest table tennis players in history. But she had to fight to compete. Deng was born in 1973 in China. Her father taught her to play table tennis when she was five. She won her first junior championship when she was nine. She won her first national championship when she was 13. Deng was a very good player. But she could not play on the national team because she was too short. She was only four feet eleven inches (1.50 m) tall. Deng was persistent. She did not give up. Because she was so good, they finally let her play on the national team. She won her first world championship the next year. Deng won two gold medals at the 1992 Olympics in Barcelona, Spain. She won two more at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta, Georgia. Deng is the most successful table tennis player to ever live. She won more titles than any other player. She was the number one female table tennis player for eight years, between 1990 and 1997. She was voted Chinese female athlete of the century. She is in the International Table Tennis Federation Hall of Fame.
