Hi,

Just thought I'd drop you a line to let you know that I'm coming to study there! Yep, it's true! I just need to get organised and I need some help. Do you think it'll be easy for me to work part-time while studying? And if so, do you know of any places where I can find a job as a waiter or anything else? The other thing I'm worried about is getting bored. What entertainment options are there? Where do you hang out? Well, that's all for now.

Get back to me soon.

Story

Last week, I went to the beach with my family. We were happy and relaxed. The weather was cool and sunny. We set off in the early morning. In the afternoon, we decided to go sailing with a friend. After one hour the weather changed. There was a storm. The boat turned over. A police boat arrived and saved us. We went back to the shore and told the family. I learned a good lesson to be careful about my life. Then, we decided not to sail alone again.

Last week, it was a sunny day. I decided to go on a desert safari with my family. It was a great idea and I was very happy. I rode the camel and it was yellow like the sun. I saw the falcon and I gave it meat. I swam in the sea and the water was warm. I played volleyball with my sister. I ate yummy food such as pizza and pasta. I took many amazing photos.

Unluckily, while I was riding the beach buggy, I fell down and I sprained my ankle. I cried loudly and I was scared. I went to the hospital with my dad. The doctor said, "Don't worry, you'll be fine". It was a bad day but I learned that I should be careful the next time.

Unforgettable Day

The sun was shining brightly, and the birds were singing as I pulled on a light jacket and ran out of the house to join my father. We headed to the harbor where we took our small boat and went on a voyage.

We sailed for about two hours before we reached our favorite bay. Dad let the anchor down and tied the boat to a large rock on the shore using a long rope. We put on our masks and fins and dived into the warm water. There were fish everywhere. It was amazing! Time passed and suddenly the sky became dark grey and a strong wind started blowing. We were swimming back to the boat when suddenly a large wave came our way and threw my dad against a rock.

I swam towards him and saw that he was fainted. I grabbed him under the arms and pulled him to the boat. I was afraid but I knew I had to save my dad. I used the boat's radio to call for help. Within minutes a rescue boat arrived and took us to the shore where an ambulance was waiting.

My dad had a broken shoulder and a lot of cuts but he recovered quickly. I was glad that I saved my dad. But it was the most frightening moment in my life.

Last Month, I went camping in the forest with my friend Ali. The weather was warm and sunny. We started early in the morning. We packed some snacks and water. As we were walking in the woods near some hills, we heard someone calling for help. We looked down and saw a lady at the bottom of the hill. Her arm was injured. I could pull the lady up. While I was looking around, I slipped on some rocks. Luckily, my friend, Ali, helped me up so I didn't fall. Then we threw a bottle of water at the lady to drink as she looked thirsty. She was in a real pain and we felt sorry for her. After an hour of waiting, a rescue team came and saved the injured lady. We were very happy that she will be fine.
