Reading

A lion was asleep. Suddenly, a mouse was running over his face. He woke up very angry. He caught the mouse and was about to kill him. Then, the mouse interrupted saying, "If you would only save my life, I would be sure to repay your kindness." The lion laughed and said: "You will help me?" He let the mouse go.

It happened shortly after this that the lion was stuck in a net that was put by some hunters. Now the lion could not move. He was helpless. The mouse, hearing the lion roaring, came and chewed the net with his teeth, and set him free!

The mouse then told the lion, "You made fun of the idea that I would ever be able to help you. You did not expect me to reward for your favor. Now you know that it is possible for even a mouse to help out a lion." The lion was so grateful.
