READING

Tigers are amazing animals! They are the biggest cats in the world. These big cats are known for their beautiful orange fur with black stripes. Each tiger has a pattern of stripes that is unique, just like our fingerprints.

Tigers are great swimmers, and they enjoy being in the water. They use their strong legs to paddle and catch fish. They also have sharp teeth and claws that help them hunt for food in the wild.

Did you know that tigers are very good at sneaking up on their prey? They are silent and can move through the grass without making a sound. Tigers mostly hunt at night, so they have excellent night vision to see in the dark.

Sadly, tigers are endangered, which means there are not many of them left in the wild. People are working hard to protect these incredible animals and their homes in the forests. We must do our part to help save these majestic creatures for future generations to enjoy and admire.

1. What is the text MAINLY about?
A. information about tigers
B. information about cats species
C. information about what tigers eat
D. information about where tigers live

2. What does the underlined word "interesting" mean?

- A. hard
- B. strong
- C. bored
- D. fantastic

3. What do tigers use to catch fish?

_____ They use their strong legs to paddle and catch fish.

4. Why do tigers hunt at night?

_____ Tigers mostly hunt at night, so they have excellent night vision to see in the dark.
