Reading Comprehension:

- Read the story and answer the questions.

1) One day, there was a farmer who lived with his family in a small village. He was looking for a water source for his farm. So, he bought a well from his neighbour and paid 20 golden coins for it. On the next day, the farmer came to draw water from his well, the neighbour refused to let him take any water. The farmer found out that his neighbour was a cheater.

2) When the farmer asked why, the neighbour answered, "I sold you the well, but not the water," and walked away. The farmer was sad, so he went to the king and told him about his problem with his neighbour to ask for justice.

3) The king asked the neighbour, "did you sell the well to the farmer?" The neighbour answered, "I did sell the well to the farmer but not the water within it and he has no right to draw water from the well." The king said, "Look, since you sold the well to the farmer, you have no right to keep the water in the well. The king ordered the neighbour to take the water out from the well immediately!"
