Reading Comprehension

Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow.

(1) Rashid is a creative student. He enjoyed writing because he could think of creative ideas and write them down on paper very easily. His teachers often liked his work because he wrote in a very good way. He got good grades in all his tests and homework. Rashid had done so well in his writing classes that he expected to get perfect grades with little effort. He really had a talent for writing.

(2) On the last writing homework, Rashid was supposed to write an essay on a topic of his choice. He knew this homework would be simple for him, so he decided he would write the paper the night before it was due. This gave him time to do fun things such as going on picnics, exercising, and listening quietly to the buzz of the bees around him.

(3) The night before his homework was due, Rashid sat down to begin his essay on why everyone should exercise at least thirty minutes per day. He had not yet written a full paragraph, when suddenly the lights went out all over his town. Rashid felt so upset. The room was very so dark that he could not complete his homework.

(4) Rashid asked his father "Do you know the reason for the power outage?". His father replied, "It was due to high winds." Because Rashid had delayed his writing homework, he was unable to finish it that night. He got low marks on this homework because he had failed to return it on time. Rashid realized that writing homework was more important than having fun, and he should have completed it before doing other things. Rashid decided that next time he would start his homework earlier, even if writing was easy for him.
