Reading Comprehension:

Read the passage and answer the questions.

1 The big soccer tournament called the FIFA World Cup aims at uniting people, and everyone was looking forward to the 2022 one in Qatar. Even though some people were unsure about Qatar being the host, it turned out to be really cool and got everyone pumped up. What made it different was that they played the games in the winter instead of the usual summer, so it wasn't too hot for the players and fans.

2 His Highness Sheikh Tamim bin Hamad Al Thani, Amir of the State of Qatar, attended the opening ceremony of world cup 2022 on 20th November 2022. Qatar did a lot to get ready for the event and found solutions to every obstacle. They built amazing stadiums, improved transportation, and made nice places for people to stay. The stadiums were so high-tech and looked awesome. Qatar isn't just about the facilities, though – they're known for being friendly and having a mix of cultures. The World Cup was a chance for them to show how people from different places can come together through soccer.

3 World cup 2022 took place in great stadiums. Something cool about the 2022 World Cup was that Qatar wanted to be eco-friendly. They built stadiums that saved energy and used cool technology to help the environment. 32 countries participated in World Cup 2022. Other countries hosting the World Cup can learn from what Qatar did and try to do things in a more responsible way.

4 All in all, the 2022 World Cup in Qatar was groundbreaking. It did things differently, like choosing Qatar as the host and playing in winter. The cool stadiums and Qatar's focus on being friendly, diverse, and environmentally friendly made it stand out. Qatar's efforts in making soccer awesome and caring about the planet will be remembered by soccer fans and people around the world.
