(10 marks)

Text 1: Scott

I love technology. When there is a new kind of tablet computer or a new smartphone in the shops, I have to buy it because I don't want to be isolated and have no communications with others.

A lot of people my age don't do that- I am 76. I never throw them away, but I keep them in my home. I even keep the old ones that I don't use. I only use one mobile, one tablet and one desktop computer. I use them a lot. I download films and music and I use social networking sites a lot. It's a good way to keep in touch with old friends. And it has helped me to make a lot of new friends, too.

Text 2: Gerry

I live in Toronto, but my son and his kids live in New Zealand. I go there or they come to visit me every year. But we speak most days, video chat helps us to stay in touch. I think the kids -my grandchildren- like speaking to me on the screen. They are always very chatty and sociable. But when we meet in Toronto or in New Zealand, they are shy. When I was young, my friends and I met and talked. Now, young people go online. The world is changing.

Text 3: Delvin

I love people and I hate computers. My only phone is a landline.

Landline phones were OK for my parents and my grandparents, and they are OK for me! I like to meet my friends, neighbours and family. When I want to talk to someone, I go to their home. If they are in, we have a chat. If they are not there, I come back home. I don't mind – I like walking! My sons and my grandchildren are always saying, "come on, you have to get a computer, you have to get a mobile – then you can do video chat!". Well, I don't want to use mobiles and computers and smart phones and the internet! I am happy as I am.
