15 Then and Now

Omar was born in Tabuk. His family decided to move to Jeddah when he was young. His father was a doctor and he found a job in one of the hospitals in Jeddah.

Omar was a happy child. He was also a good student and made friends very quickly. When he was in high school, he became very interested in computer programming and especially artificial intelligence. He read books and articles and tried to learn as much as possible about it.

Omar knew that his father wanted him to become a doctor and he didn't want to disappoint him, so he decided to talk to him. He told his father what he had learned about artificial intelligence and asked him to help him study and specialize in this area instead of medicine. His father was a wise man. He wanted Omar to study medicine, but he saw that his son was genuinely interested and enthusiastic about artificial intelligence. He promised to do whatever he could to support him.

After graduation, Omar applied at some of the best universities in English speaking countries. He was accepted by almost all of them. He had a hard time deciding which country and which university to go to. He finally decided to study in the U.S. He made Dean's list in his first year and graduated first in his class. He continued with his post-graduate studies, and he eventually became the leader of a research team after he got his PhD.

Sometimes when he thinks about his life, he can still see himself playing football with his friends in Jeddah. It all seems like a dream to him. For his parents and friends, however, it is a well-deserved and successful career.

Yesterday

Yesterday was a nice day. I was on small trip with my family.
We were at the park for one hour.
My mother was surprised because finally we were not at home.
My father was a little worried because of the virus.
My sister was happy and in love with the sun.
My grandpa was bored because he stayed at home.
The weather was great, it was hot and sunny.
The park was green and clean, it was beautiful.
It was one of the best days of my life.

- ☐ .He likes to go home to New York and enjoy his mom's cooking
- ☐ .He likes to go home to Japan and enjoy his mom's cooking
- ☐ .He likes to go home to China and enjoy his mom's cooking

- During his career with the Houston Rockets, Yao scored an average of 19 points per game and made an average of 9.2 rebounds per game. He took part in 486 regular season games for Houston, playing an average of 32.5 minutes per game.
- Yao Ming retired from basketball in 2011 because of injuries to his foot and ankle.

Teaching Tip

Have a regular Show and Tell time in class, for example, during the first 10 minutes of class every Wednesday. At that time, students have an opportunity to share a story or bring something to class to talk about.

Additional Activity

Play a word game. Say a word, for example: basketball. A student then has to say a word that begins with the last letter of the word, for example, long. The next student says a word that begins with g, the last letter of long, and so on. If a student can't think of a word, he or she is out of the game.

Project: Write a Bio

Have students write a bio about themselves. It should begin with I was born in _____ and tell about important events in their lives. Students share their bios either in a class exhibit or by reading them aloud with a small group.

- The tallest person to play professional basketball in the U.S. was Manute Bol, a player from Sudan. He was 2.31 meters tall.
- Robert Wadlow (1918-1940) was the tallest person in history with a height of 2.72 meters.
- The tallest living person is Sultan Kösen, from Turkey, with a height of 2.51 meters.
