1-Comprehension passage

3

Did you know that some people live in space? Scientists want to study the universe, so they ask astronauts to stay at space stations for a year or longer. The astronauts study about space and about planets. They must learn how to eat without a plate and sleep without a bed because everything floats in space! They must wear special suits and carry their own air. There is an International Space Station that has had people in it for 12 years. Astronauts from USA, Russia, Europe and Japan have lived at this space station.
