Teaching Tip

Look for opportunities to review and reinforce language presented in previous units. For example, this unit reviews affirmative sentences with be (He's from Australia. I'm here on business.) and possessive adjectives (our viewers, his nationality).

Additional Activity

Play a trivia game with countries, nationalities, and capitals. Put students in teams. Each team writes 10 questions, such as What's the capital of France? or I'm from France. What's my nationality? Then teams ask each other their questions. Teams get one point for each correct answer.

Some countries have different names in their own language from the ones used in English or in other languages. For example, Spain is España in Spanish. Germany is Deutschland in German, but Alemania in Spanish.
